U.N. Command Says Ship In Neutral Area

Fate Of 2 Men Aboard Not Revealed; Yank General Files Protest

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—Communist anti-aircraft guns yesterday shot down a small unarmed American training plane. The U.N. Command today said the craft had "inadvertently intruded" over the demilitarized zone but not into North Korean territory.

Later the Air Force announced a C-47 transport searching near the demilitarized zone for the missing trainer was fired upon this morning. One small slug hit the left wing but the plane was otherwise unharmed.

Maj. Gen. Harlan C. Parks, senior Allied member of the Military Armistice Commission, accused the Reds of "wanton barbarism" in pouring "continuous murderous and devastating ground fire" at the plane until it crashed in Communist territory.

Parks said the plane carried only a pilot and a military passenger on "a routine training flight." There was no information on whether the two escaped death. Their names were withheld. Parks demanded that the Reds immediately return the two men.

AIR FORCE officials said the plane which Allied ground observers saw shot down is believed to be a T-6 trainer missing on a training flight from Kimpo Air Base, near Seoul.

It took off at 2 p. m. and the last routine radio report was received about an hour later. About 30 minutes later, U. N. ground observers reported they saw the plane shot down by North (Continued on Page Two)

Well-Behaved Hurricane Now Just A Breeze

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Diane, the well-behaved hurricane, breezed northward early today as just another somewhat wet and windy storm. Her once potent 125 mph winds had been dissipated in a long trip through the Carolinas and Virginia.

As she moved toward eastern West Virginia and central Pennsylvania her strongest winds were 40 mph. Then, last night as she huffed and puffed at southwest Virginia they had dwindled to 20 to 35 mph.

The Weather Bureau said her winds would continue to diminish as she moved north.

Moderate to heavy rains were expected to accompany Diane's advance into Central Pennsylvania and Eastern West Virginia, as well as Western Maryland, today.

Along the Atlantic coast, southeast storm warnings which had flown for days when Diane was at her worst were hauled down at 11 a. m. and only small craft were warned to stay in port.

Diane didn't do much damage in her passage over the Carolinas and Virginia. She brought high tides that flooded some business establishments in northeastern North Carolina and rains that further damaged tobacco and corn crops in Virginia.

Landslide Kills Vermont Family

JONESVILLE, Vt. (AP)—A family of three was killed last night when buried in a landslide caused by heavy rains.

David Cutter, his wife Elsie, both about 40, and their daughter Patricia, 3, were watching sections of a bank wash away along the Winooski River when an embankment fell on them.

School Heads Deny Claim Local Workers 'Snubbed'

A claim that local workmen have been snubbed in Circleville's school building program has been declared "entirely unjustified" by top spokesmen for the city school system.

Members of the city board of education strongly denied a report that contractors have been hiring almost all of their men from outside Pickaway County. They also denied an assertion that a promise had been made, in the early stages of the building program plans, to hire as many local men as possible.

One member of the board said: "Even aside from the obvious fact that the school board can't tell a contractor whom to hire, it must be clear to any fair-minded person that a contractor has to know the men working for him.

"AFTER ALL, he has deadlines to meet and other rigid requirements to keep in mind, and you can't blame an out-of-town contractor if he brings in his own men with him. He just can't depend upon strangers—strangers to him—on jobs involving important parts of the program.

"Any complaint that local workers have been ignored is entirely unjustified. I'm sure they've been hired whenever possible."

City Schools Superintendent George Hartman said he feels certain there is no basis for the complaint. He added, however, that he was told about some instances in which local men were either rejected or discharged from work on the current program, financed through a bond issue approved by the voters here last November.

In one case, Hartman said, the applicant for a job demanded that he be made a foreman, and this was refused. In another case, a man hired locally was "warned repeatedly about loafing on the job" and was finally discharged.

Hartman said it may be true that relatively few Pickaway County men are on the work lists at this time, but he pointed out that "the program is now tapering off" after the heavier jobs have been completed, and that contractors thus are obliged to reduce their crews.

He added, however, that many local men were employed earlier.

VIRGIL M. CRESS, secretary of the school board, also mentioned the fact that "things are now getting to the point where the contractors just don't need the men any more", and that certain layoffs have consequently been ordered.

He strongly denied, though, that Pickaway County men were not given a fair opportunity for jobs earlier in the program.

Cress said he did not have accurate figures available, but he said it is his belief that "between 25 and 30 men" altogether were employed on the program during that stage of the work concerned with foundations and forms. And at least a third or perhaps half this number, he said, have been Pickaway County men.

He said those in charge of the work have "used Circleville men—and men from other parts of the county—every chance they got." But he added:

"You have to remember too, that they couldn't be put on the payroll just because they happened to be from this district and wanted to work. They had to be needed first."

Berger To Get $76,106 Gift From Estate

Berger Hospital will receive an additional gift of $76,106.75 from the estate of the late Margaret R. Millar, Attorney Charles H. May, executor of the estate, announced today.

A previous gift of $100,000 from the estate was revealed early last May. Tom Curtis, administrator of the hospital, was notified of the latest gift as May turned it over to the city auditor's office.

Formal notification was to go shortly to officials of the hospital. Curtis said he was "mightily well pleased to hear the good news." He added that hospital officials have been highly pleased by the "prompt and efficient manner in which Mr. May has handled our portion of the estate."

MISS MILLAR, who died in April 1954, lived all her life at the family homestead in Madison Township. At the time of her death, she was 91. The bequest to Berger Hospital is in memory of her two brothers, Franklin G. and Irvin Millar.

While no specific use for the Millar bequest funds has yet been announced by Berger officials, Curtis recently outlined the urgent need of an additional wing to the main hospital building. Addressing the Circleville Rotary Club, he described how the hospital is already overburdened despite a new wing completed last year.

Russians Claimed On Truce Team

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—O. K. Armstrong, former Republican congressman from Missouri, said today he had positive proof that Russian intelligence officers often take the place of Polish and Czech members on the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission in Korea.

He attributed his information to Swiss and Swedish members of the inspection teams, U. S. military sources and South Koreans. "They have inspected and photographed U. S. military installations all over Korea," Armstrong said. He was in Korea last week.

Mrs. Penguin Refuses Help

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—A proud male king penguin at the local zoo is now two weeks faithfully along towards hatching an egg. His mate is giving him no help at all.

"Normally the female relieves the male at intervals during the egg's incubation period," zoo keeper Alan Beet said, "but so far she's shown no willingness to take over."

The incubation period is 64 days. So Mr. Penguin has a job until about Oct. 5, unless the Mrs. helps over.

High Judges Meet

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chief Justices of the 4 state supreme courts met here today under the chairmanship of Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt of Ohio.

Jackson County Legal Tiff Involving Trago To Be Aired

JACKSON, Ohio (AP)—Harold E. (Foxy) Rowe, Jackson County Democratic chairman, has secured a writ of prohibition from Common Pleas Court in a witness intimidation charge lodged against him.

Judge C. W. Smith of Vinton County, vacation substitute justice, issued the writ yesterday, and set next Tuesday for a hearing on a permanent writ.

M. M. Carlisle, Rowe's attorney, said the writ was to block action last Tuesday by Justice of the Peace Emerson Gullett of Oak Hill, who ordered Rowe's $300 appearance bond forfeited, and bound him to the grand jury under $1,500 bond on the charge.

Carlisle said he believed Gullett's hearing illegal because Rowe was not present, and the attorney filed an affidavit of prejudice against Gullett in the justice's court.

Mrs. Mary Nicholson Snyder, Jackson County prosecutor, said enforcement of Gullett's orders will be deferred until after the hearing next Tuesday.

She said she believed a permanent writ cannot be granted in the case, because she said the court "cannot prevent the justice from doing something that has already been done."

The charge against Rowe was filed by Edward E. Davis of Oak Hill, who said the Democratic leader sought to have Elvin McGowan change his testimony in the trial of Jackson County Sheriff David L. Trago in Gallipolis. McGowan denies this.

Trago's trial resumed today. He is charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old serviceman.

In a separate action yesterday, Judge Smith turned down a move to dismiss a complaint of misconduct against Mrs. Snyder, based on the absence of an attorney for the complainants.

John Alden Staker, Trago's attorney, yesterday filed a brief on behalf of three taxpayers, who charged the prosecutor offered $175 to Thomas Boswell last April to say he had seen the sheriff with two small boys.

Judge Smith set next Tuesday for a motion to make the charges against the prosecutor "definite and certain."

South Korea Bans Travel To Japan

SEOUL (AP)—South Korea has "completely banned" Koreans from making any business or personal trips between South Korea and Japan.

Foreign Ministry officials said, "As a principle, no Koreans are allowed to make any private trips between the two countries because the Japanese are giving protection and encouragement to elements opposed to the government of the Republic of Korea, to Korean national traitors, and to pro-Japanese Koreans both economically and politically."

U.S.-China Talks In Recess Again

GENEVA (AP)—The U. S. and Communist Chinese ambassadors met 2½ hours today for the eighth talk in nearly three weeks of secret negotiations here on repatriation of civilians each government claims the other is holding.

The ambassadors then recessed until Saturday morning. As usual there was no announcement except for an American statement be discussed again then.

So far the two envoys, U. Alexis Johnson of the United States and Wang Ping-nan of Peiping, have announced no progress.

Former Exile To Head Syria

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—The Syrian Parliament elected 62-year-old Shukri Kuwaty, who returned from exile only last year, president of Syria today.

The new president, who was deposed by a military coup in 1949, won his majority over Foreign Minister Khaled Azem on the second ballot, 91-41. Kuwaty will take over from the 90-year-old incumbent, Hashem Atassi, Sept. 6.

Argentina Hit By New Wave Of Riotings

Church-State Feud Erupts; No Priests Yet Under Arrest

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Peace seemed remote today for Argentina, her capital wracked by street fighting and her government renewing its battle with Roman Catholic church leaders.

Reinforced police patrols roamed the streets of Buenos Aires after the third straight day of clashes yesterday between antigovernment demonstrators and followers of President Juan Peron.

Justice and Interior Minister Oscar Albreu accused seven priests in Buenos Aires of using the pulpit to incite a "campaign of disobedience" against Peron.

He said no action had been taken yet against the priests but that their names would be handed over to church authorities.

"Tolerance has its limit," he said, "and we cannot continue tolerating these things because that would in effect concur with them."

He said the government would resume its political campaign against the church.

BUT THE REGIME, he added, would not abandon the policy of "pacification" Peron proclaimed in an attempt to restore order after the bloody abortive revolt of June 16. Until this week, the government had virtually stilled its attacks on the church.

Commenting on the Peronista party's announcement Tuesday that it was resuming its "political crusade" Albreu said the opposition groups brought this on themselves by rejecting the government's proffered truce. The opposition Radical and Democratic (conservatives) parties demanded that Peron restore civil liberties.

Albreu did not indicate what form the pacification policy now would take.

Yesterday's violence disrupted the holiday marking the 105th anniversary celebration of the death of Gen. Jose de San Martin, who liberated Argentina from Spain.

The skirmishes, many punctuated by shots, broke out before dawn and continued intermittently until last night in downtown Buenos Aires. Police scattered most of the demonstrators with tear gas and fire hoses, but new fights kept erupting.

It was not known how many persons have been injured or arrested since the trouble began Monday, but the figure is expected to be high.

Ag Agency Says Cheese Deal Made Only To Aid Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says it acted "solely in the interest of American farmers" in cheese transactions frowned on by Comptroller General Joseph Campbell.

The department issued a statement last night saying it would carefully review Campbell's opinion that the deal with a number of cheese distributors was "unauthorized and improper."

It did not say immediately whether it would seek to recover the estimated $2 million paid out. Involved were "purchase resale transactions" around April 1, 1954, when Secretary of Agriculture Benson lowered the cheese support rate from 90 to 75 per cent of parity, and cheese firms hurried to unload at the higher rate.

Under these deals, the government paid distributors 37 cents a pound for the cheese, at the 90 per cent level, then sold it back to them at 34½ cents, without ever taking actual possession of the products. The department said the arrangements were made to keep the cheese in commercial channels and thus readily available to consumers, and to avoid transportation costs.

The department contended the transactions saved money for the taxpayers. Campbell said they actually cost the government about $2 million.

The payments were said to have been made to about 100 distributors for about 90 million pounds of cheese.

Companies mentioned included Kraft Foods Co., the Borden Co., the National Biscuit Co., A&P Stores, H. J. Heinz Co., Superior Cheese Co. (a Safeway stores affiliate), and C. J. Berst & Co.

Freed Flier's Mother Hopes Reconciliation Still Possible

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The mother of Airman Daniel C. Schmidt says she has not given up hope of a reconciliation between him and his remarried wife, Una.

The mother, Mrs. Nellie Peters, 43, said last night she would have to hear it from her son that he definitely was through with his wife.

"Danny never said anything like that to me," said Mrs. Peters, who has talked to her son by telephone since he came home to find Una married to another man. Mrs. Peters has not heard from Schmidt for several days but expects him to visit her soon.

She recalled that her son told her he was going to work out the problem himself but "now others have entered the picture and it doesn't sound like Danny any more."

Mrs. Peters was referring to a statement by Schmidt's attorney, Howard Welch of Sacramento, that Schmidt does not want a reconciliation.

The former Mrs. Schmidt said she remarried in the belief Schmidt was dead. The young airman was recently released from Red Chinese captivity.

According to Mrs. Peters, Una telephoned her Monday and asked for her help in seeking "Danny's forgiveness. She was scared stiff. She's just a confused kid of 19."

The airman's mother quoted Una as saying she had left her second husband, Alford Fine, and was in hiding with hers and Schmidt's 2-year-old son.

"She told me," Mrs. Peters said, "as soon as I put my nose out of hiding they will take away my baby."

Pack Of Farm Dogs Kills Youngster, 6

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont. (AP)—A 6-year-old boy was bitten to death by a pack of 14 farm dogs here yesterday when he tried to keep them from mauling his own dog.

Police said Wayne Baker had wandered away from his family's summer home at nearby Matthewsville. He was found in a clump of bushes on a neighboring farm an hour later.

Mrs. Vera MacDonald, who owns the farm and dogs, said she had gone to the store shortly before the incident. When she returned she found the mutilated child.

Pennies Blamed In Girl's Death

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP)—Several pennies she swallowed two weeks ago contributed to the death yesterday of Judith Hamilton, 7.

Medical Examiner T. Morton Gallagher said the child died of inflammation of the stomach and throat, adding that her condition was aggravated by the copper in the coins.

The child did not reveal she had swallowed the pennies until they showed up in X-rays last Friday.

Unionist Indicted

NEW YORK (AP)—Joseph P. Ryan, 71, president emeritus of the International Longshoremen's Assn., was indicted by a federal grand jury today for evading payment of $32,777 in income taxes from 1949 through 1952.

Revised Proposal To Be Placed On November Ballot

Pickaway County's revised school consolidation proposal has been approved by the State Department of Education, assistant director D. W. Darling told The Herald today.

The revised plan omitted a section which originally called for the establishment of two new high schools when the county's 15 school districts, not including Circleville, would be combined into one. The county citizens committee, which drew up the plan after months of study, was told that particular section might involve legal technicalities.

With approval given by the state agency, the next move will be about next Wednesday night when the Pickaway County Board of Education will hold a special meeting. The county board is expected to order the consolidation issue placed on the November ballot.

The following day, Aug. 25, is the deadline set by the Pickaway County Board of Elections for the issue to be filed in time to allow for absentee ballots to be sent out. Actually, the issue could wait until 40 days before election time.

HARFORD RENICK, chairman of the citizens committee, said that although his group had to leave out the recommendation concerning the new high schools it will submit this proposal to the new county school board which would be formed. This new board would be in addition to the regular county board and would administer the new single district.

However, the issue must first pass the voters by 55 percent in November. One stipulation in the law is that any school district voting 75 per cent against the consolidation would not be included in it.

If the consolidation plan is approved by the county's voters, all of the 15 school districts and their boards, outside of Circleville, would be abolished. One board of five members would be appointed by the county board to administer the single district until the next election.

Under the original plan, the citizens committee proposed giving the 11 high school buildings in the county over to the grade schools. Doing that, they then planned to have two new high schools constructed, one east of the Scioto River and one west.

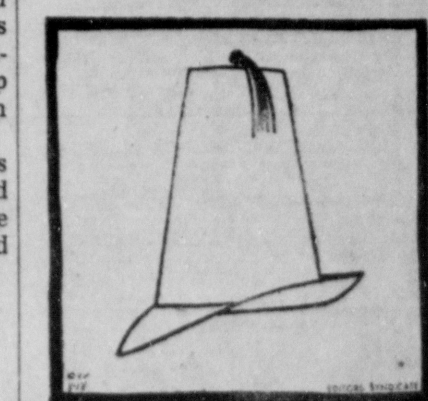

However, this ran into some legal (Continued on Page Two)

Polio Total Dips

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Health Service said today 1,781 new polio cases were reported to it last week. It was 6 per cent below the 1,904 reported for the corresponding 1954 week. Through Aug. 13, there were 9,720 cases listed this calendar year compared with 12,695 in 1954.

DROODLES

By ROGER PRICE

"SNAP-BRIM FEZ FOR EGYPTIAN BOOKMAKERS"

I took this imaginative Droodle down to the United Nations Building to show it to the Arab Delegation but the guard refused to let me in, even though I told him my sheet was being cleaned and pressed. I finally got into a room with some of the Dutch Delegates and had only showed them 3 Droodles when they started stamping their feet and encouraging me with shouts of "Raus mit'em!" and "Was ist los dumbkopfers?" After that I saw a gentleman in a long black cloak taking pictures of the Coke Machine with a tiny black camera he had strapped to his ankle, but when I showed him the Droodle he mumbled "Da, da, da" and ran down the hall. Guess he mistook me for his Father.

Jack of GE Promoted To Cleveland Job

R. A. Jack, one of the pioneer officials at the Circleville plant of the General Electric Co., has been promoted to duties in the firm's lamp division home office at Nela Park, E. G. Grigg, local manager, announced today.

Jack, who will leave soon for his new post at Cleveland, will be succeeded here by C. R. Stinard.

In his new assignment Jack will visit 11 lamp plants from Oakland, Cal., to Jackson, Miss., where he will check on factory processes, methods and procedures. The plant here will be included.

Jack started with GE 20 years ago next October. He held various positions in Cleveland before coming to Circleville seven years ago as one of the original group to start the local plant.

Jack has been general foreman of Colling, then Slimline, and most recently general foreman of Circleville.

HE HAS BEEN very active in Scout work and for the past year and a half has served as chairman of the Organization and Extension Committee for Pickaway County.

He also has been very active in Kiwanis.

Jack is married, has two children and lives at 128 Park Street.

2-Pound Trout Delights Ike

FRASER, Colo. (AP) — Delighted over landing a two-pound Rocky Mountain trout, President Eisenhower today held the "biggest catch" championship at his secluded vacation retreat here.

He reeled in the trout yesterday in the first few seconds of 3 1/2 hours of fishing in cold St. Louis Creek. He also caught several smaller trout. His 7-year-old grandson, David, fly casting for the first time, hauled in two 12-inchers from a pond.

Programs Planned For Fair's Prizes

One of the big features of the 1955 Pickaway County Fair will be the chance for many different prizes.

There will be two programs each day of the fair for valuable merchandise prizes.

On Youth Day, Sept. 16, the fair board will give away two bicycles and many other gifts that will be of interest to children.

The prize ruse to draw most interest will be an all-expense-paid trip to either New York City or Washington D. C.

The more times you come to the fair, the more chances you have of winning one of the daily prizes and the grand prize.

Drunken Driver Fails To Serve Jail Sentence

Another drunk driver, granted the privilege of serving his three-day jail sentence on weekends instead of consecutively at the time of his conviction, has disappeared, Circleville's Municipal Court has revealed.

Garland Wilson, of Columbus, was found guilty last May 16 following his arrest by Deputy Sheriff Carl White. Ordered to report to the jail that weekend, he has since disappeared and cannot be found, according to Deputy White.

Court Clerk Anne Caudill said although she was on vacation then, she was told that Wilson had not paid any of his fine—$100 and costs. She added that Wilson had apparently not been placed under bond when sentenced by Judge Sterling Lamb because he "promised" to return.

Papers have been issued for Wilson's re-arrest. Deputy White said that a preliminary search revealed that Wilson has apparently left Columbus.

THIS IS the second flagrant case of this type, involving split jail sentences for drunken driving. A Circleville motorist, also found guilty of that offense, went several months without serving his jail term.

However, following this disclosure by The Herald, the driver suddenly appeared at the county jail and began serving his sentence.

Prison Riot Is Ended In 26 Minutes

COMSTOCK, N. Y. (AP) — Guards and state police, using night sticks and guns as clubs, battled prisoners for 26 minutes early today and broke up an uprising at Great Meadow Correctional Institute.

Nearly 500 officers were sent in to the Northwest Side district around the Baltimore Theater, where policeman Clarence Kerr, 25, was eventually wounded.

Kerr, in St. Mary's Hospital, said he and his wife Marion, 24, had gone to the theater. He believed a man in a nearby seat was Carpenter. He took his wife to their car and returned to the theater, sitting in the seat next to the man he believed was Carpenter.

Kerr, with his gun in his hand, told the man: "You look like a man we are looking for."

The man replied: "All right, I guess you've got me." As they got to the main aisle, Kerr related, the gunman pulled a gun from under his shirt, whirled and fired.

The policeman emptied his gun at him, firing five shots at point blank range and the sixth as he fled to the rear exit.

Death Case Studied

COLUMBUS (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche is studying the case of Benjamin Meyer, Lancaster wife-slayer scheduled to die in the electric chair next Thursday. The State Pardon Commission has made a secret recommendation to the governor.

Driver Hurt, Fined In 1 Car Mishap

A Chillicothe Route 1 truck driver, whose car overturned and caught fire south of Williamsport Wednesday, was found guilty of drunk driving by Circleville Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb.

Lawrence H. Payne, 27, was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and has his driving rights suspended for six months. He pleaded guilty.

Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said that Payne suffered a cut inside the mouth as a result of the accident, which took place on the Williamsport-Chillicothe Pike, one

Ex-Convict Wounds Cop In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — A 26-year-old ex-convict, hunted for the killing of a detective here, seriously wounded a rookie policeman in a gun fight last night in a movie theater.

The slayer, believed wounded, fled while some 250 persons watched the movie. Several screamed as shots exploded but there was no panic.

Police stepped up their search for the gunman, Richard Carpenter, who Monday night killed Detective William J. Murphy, 34, in a gun battle in a subway station.

Nearly 500 officers were sent in to the Northwest Side district around the Baltimore Theater, where policeman Clarence Kerr, 25, was eventually wounded.

Kerr, in St. Mary's Hospital, said he and his wife Marion, 24, had gone to the theater. He believed a man in a nearby seat was Carpenter. He took his wife to their car and returned to the theater, sitting in the seat next to the man he believed was Carpenter.

Kerr, with his gun in his hand, told the man: "You look like a man we are looking for."

Jackson Levy Proposed To Correct Error

Jackson Township school district voters next November will be faced with a proposed one-mill levy to make up a shortage blamed on a deputy's error in the Pickaway County auditor's office.

Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer has explained that the error resulted through a misunderstanding in the auditor's office during the absence of the late Fred L. Tipton, who was auditor at the time and ill at his home. The error resulted in a shortage of approximately $6,500 in tax funds.

Plans for the November ballot proposal were described by H. Newell Stevenson, president of the Jackson Township school board. He said the proposed levy is designed to bring in about $4,700 for each of the next two years.

However, if this levy does pass, Stevenson explained, the money will not be realized until next February's tax distribution, causing "somehat of a pinch for the rest of this year."

THE ERROR attributed to the auditor's office reduced the Jackson Township school rate 1.4 mills. Of that amount, .8 mill was to have gone toward paying off interest on a bond issue, and .6 mill was needed for operation of the township school.

The one mill tax will probably be added to a three-mill operating levy coming up for renewal in November.

The shortage was noted recently when tax monies were distributed. The .8 mill which was deducted will apparently be made up from the township's general fund.

2 Columbus Men 'Admit' Breakin In New Holland

Two Columbus men, apprehended earlier this week while committing a burglary in Upper Arlington, have reportedly confessed to a service station breakin in New Holland last weekend.

Robert Lee Van Sickle, 22, and his brother, Billy Joe, 26, both formerly of the New Holland area, also reportedly have admitted the breakin of a combination grocery store-filling station in Fayette County. Nearly all the loot, estimated at more than $100, taken from the Pickaway County incident was recovered, according to Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff.

The younger Van Sickle, now reportedly on parole, has a previous record here. In 1949, he was indicted by the grand jury for auto theft.

Found guilty, he was placed on five years' probation because of his youth. He later served time in Mansfield Reformatory.

Warrants for breaking and entering plus grand larceny have been filed against the pair. However, Upper Arlington authorities will deal with them first.

Korean anti-aircraft fire.

An Air Force search failed to find any trace of the plane or passengers.

Parks said in a letter to the Reds, "The aircraft carried no armament whatsoever and was performing a routine training flight. . . . It committed no acts that could possibly be construed as hostile."

"Despite these facts, your trigger happy gunmen, without warning or without waiting to ascertain if the aircraft would positively intrude into your territory, opened fire without provocation while the plane was still over the demilitarized zone."

Parks said this was the 10th officially recorded incident of Red ground guns firing on "unarmed craft" in the past 10 months.

He contrasted that with 53 incidents in which he said Communist aircraft had intruded Allied territory south of the demarcation line and in which Allied gunners had held their fire.

Women Inmates Quelled In Riot

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — State police kept a watch today at the women's reformatory where 50 inmates last night smashed windows, dishes and "everything breakable" in a wild riot.

Iris Allen, 26, of Fall River, serving a term for robbery, scaled a 10-foot barred wire fence and escaped during the riot. Three others were captured.

An inmate tipped officials to the breakout. Other inmates pounced on the informant, scratching and beating her. Then they turned to smashing everything in sight.

County Board Meets Aug. 24 In Next Phase

gal roadblocks from the state education department. Some members of the committee had originally been told it would be all right to include this in their proposal — but this opinion was later reversed.

THE COMMITTEE did leave the door open to the possible consolidation of some elementary schools, though. Their revised plan includes the phrase, "elementary schools will remain in their plants with some exceptions." This could mean, according to Darling, that some elementary schools might be eliminated.

Some objections to the consolidation plan have already cropped up, according to reports reaching The Herald. Several school districts, bordering on other counties, are apparently not warming up to the consolidation idea as they might lose some pupils from outside Pickaway County who attend their schools.

Also, the question of transportation of high school pupils from extreme ends of the county has come in for consideration. Added to this is the possible loss of some teaching jobs.

On the other hand, consolidation backers point out several advantages. One is that many of the schools do not teach subjects now which could be taught in a larger high school.

Second, there would be the advantage of new and improved buildings. Third, classes and class rooms could be better arranged. And fourth, some areas might have a reduction in school levies due to the consolidation.

AS A COMPARISON, there were 514 pupils and 40 teachers in all county high schools as of last teaching year; in Circleville High School, there were 543 pupils and 24 teachers.

If the issue passes here in November, it will set a precedent in Ohio. Only one other county in the state attempted a similar consolidation—Gallia — but voters there turned it down due to transportation difficulties.

Stretch Of Prosperity Being Sought

Washington Believes Tight Money Now To Prolong Good Times

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Taking a tip from the hosiery industry the administration is trying to make s-t-r-e-t-c-h-a-b-l-e good times.

Times right now are undeniably good in most parts of the land. In Washington they believe they can stretch these good times through next year by letting money get tight now. The fact that 1956 is an election year may or may not have something to do with it.

Or, to change the figure, the administration isn't trying to put a brake on the boom—it is trying to equip the boom with a governor. It isn't trying to slow down business—now totalling down the highway at record speed—but to keep it from speeding up a lot more and following the traditional course of runaway and crash.

That's the way many businessmen size up the present situation. Credit is getting tight. That's why interest rates are slowly rising. It's why banks are luring new deposits by raising the interest they pay depositors, and by seeking new funds from abroad by raising the interest on foreign deposits. It's why one New York bank has called some of its brokers' loans—the first time that's happened since 1933, another tight money period.

Good times are being spelled out on all sides. The summer slump is mild. The Federal Reserve Board reports that while July, as usual, saw industrial production off from June, the drop was less than normally to be expected, so, the board's seasonally adjusted index of output rose to a record high.

Chain stores and mail order firms report summer business running about 8 per cent above a year ago—just about what the average for the year has been so far.

Auto production is starting to slow down for the changeover to 1956 models. But steel mills are finding plenty of other business. Hampered by hot weather, vacations, and shutdowns for repair, the mills are still turning out more than two million tons of steel each week. And many of their customers are complaining of delivery delays. Iron ore shipments still pour down the Great Lakes. Tonnage so far this year has topped last year by 26 per cent.

Housing—another big prop of the current boom—is beginning to slow down, as expected. Fewer homes were started this July than last—and some of the drop may be due to tightening of mortgage terms by lenders.

The stock market has stopped to take a second look at the boom. For four weeks prices have been mostly on the downgrade, and volume has been light.

Prices of manufactured goods tend higher steadily—an offshoot of the boom that has raised demand for materials and hiked wages.

But despite a few soft spots, times generally continue very good. And the money managers hope that with a little credit tightening now, good times can be stretched out for quite a while to come.

Husky-Voiced Italian Star Latest Hollywood Sensation

ROME (AP) — Gina Lollobrigida and Sophia Loren steal the headlines, but Hollywood is more excited about another Italian—husky-voiced Rossano Brazzi.

Perhaps not since Charles Boyer whispered his invitation to the Casbah has a continental leading man hit American movie-goers with such impact. In fact, thousands of U.S.-postmarked letters are delivered every month to his apartment on via Sistina here.

Universal International, with a keen ear to the feminine reaction to his role in "Summertime," with Katharine Hepburn, recently signed Brazzi to a contract for one picture annually for three years.

He plans two outside pictures each year and has a round dozen offers to pick from. He is favored for the coveted lead in the film version of "South Pacific," the role played by Ezio Pinza on Broadway.

"For the first time in my life I am really loved," Brazzi admits. So are female film-goers.

What is there about Brazzi which sets female hearts spinning? He isn't the typical tall leading man with handsome, regular features. Rossano's height is average, his build solid. His face is rather square, with lips which break often into a friendly smile. His eyes are large and warm, typical of Florence, the famous cultural center where he grew up. His nose is more Midwestern than Roman.

Yet somehow the romantic sum total exceeds the parts. At a recent balcony party under the Roman stars, a semi-circle of handsome women clustered around Brazzi minutes after his arrival. Standing inconspicuously to one side, beaming with pride at her husband, was Mrs. Brazzi, a fat, cheerful woman who fits to perfection the average American idea of a middle-aged Italian housewife.

Virtually ignored in a corner where he restlessly passed time with a journalist friend was such a matinee idol as Edmund Purdom. Even his lady love, Linda Chris-

13 Cities Send Guard Units For Training

CAMP PERRY (AP)—Ohio National Guard antiaircraft gunners from 13 cities are training here to defend Ohio against enemy aircraft.

Some 700 guardsmen are prepared to defend the state's strategic areas in event of an attack, says Col. Wilbur H. Fricke of Dayton, commander of the 371st AAA Group.

The 180th and 182nd AAA battalions are members of the group along with the 177th and 179 AAA battalions which have already completed summer training.

Guardsmen now in training are from Logan, Dayton, Hamilton, Middletown, Greenville, Lima, Piqua, Canton, New Philadelphia, Akron, Columbus, Toledo and Springfield.

In an emergency, the gunners would gather at a place already determined for going into firing action. Second phase is readying of "on site" gun locations. "On site" is defined as meaning that a series of antiaircraft gun emplacements would protect the major strategic areas of the state as well as the approaches to those areas in smaller cities.

FIRST OF THESE site locations are being readied in the Cleveland area for members of the 179th AAA Battalion. Only general location of the sites are to be made public.

The gun emplacements will be manned around the clock by guardsmen, with fulltime personnel being given Civil Service status. If the battery is mobilized, they would revert to the National Guard status.

Sites for the proposed gun emplacements in Ohio were selected by the Army Corps of Engineers, but the Cleveland area sites are the first to near actual operation.

Rifle, Shotgun Debate Settled Deadly Hard Way

DENISON, Tex. (AP)—Two young men settled an argument recently whether a rifle or a shotgun is a better firearm by shooting it out. One was killed and the survivor is charged with murder.

Kay Richardson, 22, the survivor and the man who liked the rifle, told authorities his argument with 19-year-old Gerald Lee Wells began after an all night drinking bout.

Richardson gave this account to County Atty. Boyd Newman:

Richardson was carrying a shotgun and pistol as the two walked along a railroad track. The argument began and Richardson turned his firearms over to Wells and went home for his 30-30 rifle.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under the new code of military conduct the armed forces keep a stiff grip on a club to hold over the head of any captured American who collaborates with the enemy or hurts his fellow prisoners.

This new code, proclaimed Wednesday by President Eisenhower, was put together by a committee of government officials and top retired officers.

After the spectacle of some American prisoners of war in Korea collaborating with the enemy or mistreating their fellow prisoners, Secretary of Defense Wilson created the committee to produce a guide for future POW conduct. The code, issued Wednesday, recognizes that prisoners have a breaking point under mistreatment or torture, as explained in point No. 5, the most important of the six-point code:

"When questioned, should I become prisoner of war, I am bound to give only name, rank, service number and date of birth. I will evade answering further questions to the utmost of my ability."

But this cannot be interpreted as a go-ahead for a prisoner to help the enemy in any way for the explanation attached to point No. 5 says such help is forbidden. This is the language:

"Oral or written confessions true or false, questionnaires, personal history statements, propaganda recordings or broadcasts, appeals to other prisoners of war, signatures to peace or surrender appeals, self-criticisms or any other oral or written communications on behalf of the enemy or harmful to the United States . . . or other prisoners are forbidden."

This seems to be a clear warning to any serviceman taken prisoner that, while it is understood he may crack, he will still be held responsible for whatever he does and the armed services will decide what to do about it.

The committee made it clear it attempted to hit a middle road between the extreme points of view: (1) don't tell the enemy anything, and (2) tell him anything in order to avoid punishment.

But the language of the explanation to point No. 5 seems plainly to say that the armed forces will suit themselves on how they deal with a returned American prisoner of war who collaborated with the enemy in any way.

The report seems to hint—but this has to be considered carefully—a man will not be court-martialed for disobeying point No. 5 if he was badly mistreated.

Reviewing the number of men court-martialed for dealing with the Red Chinese while in their hands, the report says: "No case was brought for court-martial in which there was evidence of duress, brainwashing or any other type of coercion."

The phrase "in which there was evidence" is the key one there. The armed forces will decide on what "was evidence" of brainwashing or duress.

Wisconsin Synod

Delays Separation

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP)—The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Wisconsin and other states will delay until the fall of next year a decision on whether to sever religious ties with the Missouri Synod.

Delegates to the Wisconsin Synod's 33rd biennial convention voted 94-47 Wednesday to postpone action. The convention ended Wednesday.

Alfred G. (Nick) Smalley has been spending a leave from the Navy with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley, of Circleville Route 3. He recently graduated from boot training at Bainbridge, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Smalley and their daughter, Carol, attended the graduation exercises at the famed Maryland Navy base.

Young Smalley is scheduled to return to Maryland August 26 for further training.

Chief Elliott, Navy recruiter in this district, has announced two more enlistees.

They are: Carl P. Scarberry, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Scarberry, of Circleville Route 2, and John R. Moats, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Moats, of 125 Logan St. Both men enlisted this week and have been sent to Bainbridge, Md., for recruit training.

After the completion of a course lasting nine weeks, they will be granted 14-day leaves before reporting to their ship or station.

Bender Worried By U.S. Youths

MEDINA (AP) — Sen. George H. Bender criticized the physical condition of America's youth in a speech here yesterday.

Bender said figures prepared by the New York State Journal of Medicine show that American youngsters are "far inferior" in physical strength to those in several European nations.

"Going off to school by bus or in their own hotrods, sitting around most of the day, a few minutes of exercise a week, a quick rush homeward to turn on the television set—these things do not make for physical fitness," said the senator.

Piqua Plant Foreman Shot By Workman

PIQUA (AP)—Frank Ventura, 53-year-old foreman at the Piqua Tubing Division of Armco Steel Corp., was shot and wounded in the leg yesterday at the plant.

Police Chief Earl McClannan said Terry Dodson, 32, a plant machinist, went to police headquarters after the shooting and said he fired at the foreman because "I wanted to cripple him and get him out of there."

McClannan said Ventura told him the machinist pointed the .22 caliber revolver at his head. The foreman lunged for the weapon and forced Dodson's arm down as he fired, the chief said. Ventura was shot three times.

Investigators said Dodson drove to police headquarters after the shooting and surrendered a disarmed .22 revolver, saying, "I just shot a man."

Ventura was taken to Piqua Memorial Hospital where his condition was reported "good."

McClannan quoted Dodson saying he had planned to shoot the foreman for two weeks.

No charges have been filed.

Ohio Woman's $13,000 Cut To 87 Cents

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police said Alfred Harris Smith went on a cross-country jaunt with a Dayton woman, squandered her $13,000 in Las Vegas and was picked up here yesterday with 87 cents.

Smith was being held in city jail for investigation. Det. Sgt. C. M. Teeter said Smith had gotten the woman's money under "peculiar circumstances" which were not divulged. Neither was the woman's name disclosed.

Teeter said the woman returned from the trip with Smith, made a complaint, "but has been reluctant to press charges."

Herbert M. Jacobson, assistant Montgomery County Prosecutor, said Smith is wanted by New York authorities for parole violation. He had served time in Sing Sing Prison for first degree assault, Jacobson said. Smith will be returned to New York, the prosecutor added.

TRAVELING SALESMAN

AGRICULTURE Secretary Benson will hit the road to drum up foreign business for his department's surplus inventories. Never did a salesman have a more herculean task.

Benson plans to call on Britain, The Netherlands, Denmark, France, Italy and Switzerland. Wheat, corn and dairy products will no doubt predominate in his sample case, although he will be able to dip into the $7.2 billion stocks back home for almost any farm commodity asked for.

In the last fiscal year the U. S. sold or gave away $1.5 billion in surplus farm production, but still has more than five times that amount on hand. Getting rid of a small part of it will not be an easy task. Crops that are in long supply in the U. S. are usually drugs on foreign markets as well.

The Agriculture Department could try to undersell foreign producers, but the State Department usually intervenes by warning that dumping is a sure way to lose friends. Another problem in less advanced areas concerns education of prospective customers as to how best to use the surplus crops.

Obstacles to increased foreign agricultural trade are great, but Secretary Benson seems to feel they are not insurmountable. The situation calls for better merchandising and stepped up sales efforts, short of dumping. As salesman for America's vast stores, Benson has his work cut out for him.

WHAT SOVIET WANTS

ONE OF THE FRUITS the now beatific Russians hope to harvest is increased trade between the Soviet bloc and the West. Russian trade with the United States is merely a dribble, but there are predictions the Russians will make an effort to obtain food staples in this country to bolster their own faltering production.

The flow of goods from Europe to Russia and its satellites is increasing. Last year West Europe sent 25 per cent more goods across the iron curtain barrier, while the westward flow of goods from Russia increased 16 per cent.

So far this year Norway has increased fish exports to East Europe, France and Sweden have peddled more wheat and England has accepted $80 million of machinery orders for 1955 delivery to Russia. Russia is shipping more timber, oil and chemicals westward.

The communist nations, which hoped to become self-sufficient, find their economies creaking under the load imposed by armament output. Temporarily at least they see an answer to their problem in world trade. The United Nations has an agency which is trying to drum up East-West trade.

But U. S. trade with Russia is unlikely to soon approach the billion of dollars a year the late President Roosevelt once prophesied.

U. S. trade with Soviets is reported on the increase, but a year's volume still doesn't equal one good day in an American department store bargain basement.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

Each year, during the Summer, I try to do as much of Tanglewood as I can, which can mean as many as four concerts a week for six weeks. It is like bathing in glorious music, in conversation about music, in disputes as to the relative merits of composers, conductors, orchestras. But this year, it was particularly inspiring to meet a number of youngsters who attended the Berkshire Music Center, which is part of Tanglewood, and which is producing the American musician of the future.

Already two notable conductors, Leonard Bernstein and Thor Johnson, are Tanglewood products and the school has not yet celebrated its 20th anniversary, which is a mighty good showing.

Institutions of this sort grow out of an idea. If they are set up full-blown, somehow they do not mean too much. Tanglewood is now a permanent institution and it would seem to have been on the banks of the Stockbridge Bowl forever.

Actually, when Miss Gertrude Robinson Smith, a resident among these hills, conceived of a few concerts during the Summer, the idea was supported by the local savings banks and real estate men in the hope that they might attract residents to the beautiful Berkshires which were fading as a place for Summer residence.

Today, during most of the Summer, it is almost impossible to find a room even in a motel or a boarding house. And that is because Mozart, Haydn, Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, and other great composers are important to Americans, particularly to young people who know much more about music than their immediate ancestors.

We used to think, up here in these hills, that if anything happened to Serge Koussevitzky, Tanglewood would fade away. Koussevitzky died. Charles Munch took his place, assisted by Pierre Monteux. The concerts are more popular than ever; the crowds are larger; and more and more of the huge audience is very young American.

Tanglewood even has a book written about its development, which gives one a feeling that it has reached a hoary age, when actually it is so very young that I can remember its first concert under a tent. John G. W. Mahanna, a newspaper man of these parts, has written "Music Under the Moon," which tells the story of this amazing festival of which Charles Munch told me that he has been to all the great music festivals in the world, but there is nothing like Tanglewood, nothing that equals its atmosphere, its enthusiasm.

Mahanna's book is a detailed account of how this permanent institution grew from a very simple idea in the mind of an energetic and stimulating lady, Miss Gertrude Robinson Smith, until it became the center of a renewed cultural area in the United States.

The other day, I was discussing this with Fritz Kreisler who summers here and whose presence in these hills grips the young people who barely get a glance at him. He spoke of names that are forgotten, Joachim, Ksaye and men of distant generations. Each generation produces its own genius and its own leadership. If some criticize Leonard Bernstein for what they call his gyrations when he conducts, he nevertheless is able to impart an enthusiasm, an excitement, a cultural out-reaching among the young people who come to the Music Center which was described to me by another conductor as miraculous.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO
Caroline was grimly impassive, shrunk back into the recesses of her wheel chair like an old tortoise retracted into his shell. Clive was openly distressed; Edna, quite beside herself under her surface calm. Captain Sanders looked resigned and cynical. Only Gerry showed strong feeling.

"What is this anyway, Sara? Was it planned?"

"Yes," Her chin lifted defiantly. "I had to know the truth."

"Well, you know it now and I hope you're satisfied. I am Gerry Hone and I think you're out of your mind."

There was a sudden flush on his smooth, unblemished cheeks as he turned to Capt. Sanders. "I hope you're satisfied, too? She's wasted enough of your time and mine."

"All right, Hone," Sanders' voice was peremptory; but this time he used the name Hone without reservation.

"This man is Gerry Hone," said Caroline. "You can't get away from that. It's a fact. Mrs. Harrison's identification cannot be impugned."

"Does it matter?" said Sara, wearily. "Real or not, someone got the ruby. Who, we don't know. We probably never will."

Sara was almost running when she reached her apartment house. She looked longingly at the lights in Judith's window. There was none in Gerry's.

She hurried into the lobby, stopped before the elevator. Not tonight. She couldn't. Not after hearing that footstep again in the street.

She began to run up the fire stairs. At the first landing she had to pause for breath. She heard the whirr of the elevator mounting. Had she made sure the lock was caught when she closed the front door behind her? Perhaps not, but that must be Gerry in the elevator, going up to his own apartment from Judith's...

She toiled up the next flight, panting, and came out into the hall on her own floor. A lamp burned high in the wall beside the elevator. Beyond, in shadow, stood a tall, broad-shouldered figure, back toward her, and hand raised as if to knock on her door.

So Gerry hadn't gone on to his own apartment. He had stopped to make his peace with her.

He turned at the sound of her step. His face was quite clear in the light from the lamp—warm brown eyes under heavy brows; sudden smile, friendly, quizzical. This was the way she remembered him, not at all like the sulky, self-important young man at Aunt Caroline's this afternoon. How could he be so different in different moods?

Then she saw the three, tiny moles on his right cheek, spaced widely in a rough triangle. Not dark specks or freckles, but moles. There's something wrong, somewhere... Something about his face... Now she knew what it was. How could she have forgotten?

The man at Aunt Caroline's this afternoon had no moles on his cheeks at all. She had noticed how smooth and unblemished they were when he flushed. The man before her now was not the impostor.

This was her Gerry and he was real.

Her eyes watered. She was surprised and shocked and tired and ashamed and happy all at once—happier than she had been for a thousand years.

"Gerry! You weren't in Judith's living room a moment ago?"

"No. I just came in from the street. I was right behind you."

"Then you're real and I'm not insane. Oh, Gerry!"

She stumbled. He caught her before she fell. His arms were strong around her shaking body. His lips brought warmth to hers, still cold and trembling.

"We can't stay in the hall, Dacre. Let's go inside."

"Of course." Her laughter was shaky, threaded with tears. She fumbled in her bag for the key. He took it from her numb fingers and turned it in the lock. Her hand found the wall switch.

"Wait."

He was too late. Already the table lamps were glowing. Swiftly he crossed the room and drew the venetian blinds.

She closed the door and stood with her back against it. "You're not a fugitive, are you?"

"In a sense, that's just what I am."

"What does all this mean? What happened in the Automat? Why didn't you ever come back?"

"Dacre, this has been awful for you. How awful I didn't realize until now. Just seeing you again has made me understand a lot of things about you and about myself."

They moved to the small settee. He sat beside her, one of her hands in his. "Listen, Dacre. You'll just have to trust me, if you can. Because I can't tell you about it now."

"Do you know there is another man in your place, an impostor? He's diabolically clever. He's deceived everyone but me—Judith, your cleaning woman, your secretary, your partner, even your cousin, Mrs. Harrison, and the police. Have you a twin brother?"

"No but I know who the guy is. I've run into him before."

"Who is he? Why does he look so much like you?"

"You've heard of stand-ins for Hollywood stars?"

"You mean this impostor was a Hollywood star and you were his stand-in?"

Something like that. You don't remember seeing anyone like us on the screen because it was so long ago and we've both changed so much. But you may remember the name—Mark Clifford."

"The child star who left the screen when he was 13 because his voice changed?"

Yes. That was in 1935. Mark never was a real actor. Just a child playing himself."

"Well, he can act now," said Sara, bitterly. "And he looks exactly like you, except for the moles on your cheek and your smile."

"Queer the police didn't think of checking fingerprints in the apartment?"

"They did," She laughed. "Let me see your thumbs."

He held out his hands, palms up. "There is a little scar on the left thumb. Yours were the prints they couldn't identify. There were lots of his and, of course, Lucy's."

Their mission was fruitless. From 1776 to 1779 he sat in the Continental Congress. He outlived all the other signers of the Declaration of Independence, dying in Baltimore Nov. 14, 1832. I suppose it was his resemblance to you that gave him the idea of taking your place. But why? What does he want? The ruby?"

Gerry's eyes were no longer musing—they were sharp and alert. "So you found out it was real?"

"I wore it at Aunt Caroline's. Two friends of hers were there, Mr. Clive and Dr. Sallust. They told me. At first I couldn't believe it. But later that night I had a visitor—an East Indian from Mogur. He was looking for the ruby and that convinced me. Do you know him? A man with a cat tattooed on his wrist?"

"No."

"Did you know from the very beginning that this pendant was a real ruby called the Fire of India?"

"Yes."

"Why didn't you tell me?"

"I didn't want you mixed up in this, Dacre. I was following Moxon that day I met you in the 10-cent store."

"You knew Moxon?" cried Sara. "Yes, I knew Moxon. And he knew me. I saw him go into the 10-cent store from Fifth Ave. I rounded the corner and came in the side entrance, so I could surprise him face to face. He was afraid of me. When he saw me he dropped the pendant on the trunk counter. He thought I wouldn't see what he was doing. But I did. Before I could force my way through the crowd to the ruby, you had picked it up. Then you spoke to me. I let you buy the ruby and then offered to carry the package for you. That way I got possession of the ruby without fuss, but how was I to keep it? I suggested the Automat because it was such a perfect place to give you the slip while I still had the ruby in my pocket. Then all I had to do was walk through the crowd, out the side door. Ungallant in one sense, but not in another. If anyone was watching us, they would see the bulge of the ruby's box still in my pocket! They would follow me and leave you alone. You'd be safe and I would get the ruby without my having to explain to you why I wanted it."

"I walked to Grand Central station and went into a telephone booth. I thought I had made sure that no one was following me before I put my hand in my pocket. I held the box carefully in the palm of my hand and lifted the lid. Then I got the shock of my life. The box was empty. I went into the Commodore bar and had a drink. Automatically I reached into my pocket for change to pay for my drink and—the box was gone."

"I almost laughed. Then I ordered another drink and thought it over. There had been two thieves—one had got the ruby and one had got the box."

"And then?"

"And then I came here."

She gasped. "Here?" It was you who overturned a chair in your own apartment last night?"

"Who else could it have been?"

"Did you fake a wrong number when I telephoned you?"

"I had to. I knew you would want to see me at once and ask all sorts of questions."

"Where did you go? What have you been doing since?"

Cook Up A Brainstorm!!

By ED CREAUGH

(For Hal Boyle)

WASHINGTON (AP)—Want to make a million dollars?

There's a new pocket-size book out which tells exactly how to do it. Sounds as if the formula might work, too, if any of us had the sense and stick-to-it-iveness to follow it. A little luck might help come, too.

Marvin Small is the author of this book, titled "How to Make More Money." He made enough money himself out of such things as deodorants to retire at 45.

Basically, Small's formula is so simple that you wonder why he wrote a book about it. "Find out what a lot of people want and then give it to them" is about what it adds up to, which sounds pretty much like an old wheeze about building a better mousetrap.

But Small goes on to cite case histories—such as that of Leo Gerstenzang, who watched his wife bathe the baby, saw she was having trouble twisting cotton around the end of a toothpick, and invented Q-tips then and there.

Small doesn't point it up, but there's another lesson here: Always let your wife bathe the baby. If Gerstenzang had said,

"Here, darling, let me do that," the changes are dim he would have the high Dun & Bradstreet rating he enjoys today.

"All right," you say, "but this fellow Gerstenzang must have had a knack for inventing things. Me, I'm not smart enough to put a box of paper matches under a wobbly table leg. Doesn't that bar me from the millionaire class?"

Not on your life. Capitalize on your own defect. Small tells the story of a young New York East Sider who was so gawky he couldn't get out of the way of his own feet. But one day a brash young lady dragged him out on a dance floor and the next thing he knew he was dancing like Arthur Murray.

This is not too surprising, really, because the young man was Arthur Murray. He figured that, by golly, if he could learn to dance anybody could—if properly taught. And he became the man who did the teaching, at a highly satisfactory profit.

Well, now, says Small, there's an old Chinese saying to the effect of "Fu yu hu yu wu tzu su," which he translates as "papa's having and mama's having is not the same as having it oneself." In other words: More power to Murray and Gerstenzang, but how do I get in on the act?

Small knew you were going to ask that, and he has an answer ready—borrowed, he cheerfully acknowledges, from advertising tycoon Alex Osborn. It's a little game called "brainstorming."

You play it this way:

You look at any object—one of Murray's dance charts, for instance, or one of Gerstenzang's Q-tips. Then you ask yourself a whole series of questions about it: Is there a simpler way of doing or making this? Can it be adopted to other uses? Can it be made portable?

Not all these questions will apply to every possible object. It's hard, for example, to imagine anything more portable than a Q-tip.

Small provides you a whole series of such questions. He does some sample brainstorming for you. He gives you a word association

Columbus Ceremony Unites Marilyn Lutz, Karl R. Eby

Groom Is Former Local Resident

A wedding of interest to Circleville and the community was read in Columbus, when Miss Marilyn Louise Lutz became the bride of Karl R. Eby.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Lutz of Columbus, while Mr. Eby is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron F. Eby of Chillicothe, formerly of Circleville. The ceremony took place in Columbus at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a black bow tie.

The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Robert King of the First Methodist church in Columbus. The wedding party included the bride's sister, Miss Linda Eby, as maid of honor.

Miss Linda Eby, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor. She was attired in a floor-length gown of pale pink tulle, designed with a strapless bodice of Alencon lace, and a matching jacket.

Her veil of soft illusion was caught to a princess crown of pearls and sequins. A colonial arrangement of white carnation and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

Herbert Floyd served as best man to Mr. Eby. Bachelors and bridesmaids were present at the ceremony. Mrs. Lutz received her guests in a powder-blue lace gown, with matching accessories and a corsage of purple feathered asters.

Mrs. Eby, mother of the groom, wore a dress of beige organza. Her accessories were in a matching shade and she accented her costume with a corsage of yellow roses.

The new Mrs. Eby is a graduate of North High School, Columbus, and attended Ohio State University. She is employed in the personnel department of Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus.

Mr. Eby is a graduate of Chillicothe High School and attended Ohio State University. He served with the Signal Corps.

Swimming Party Marks Birthday

Miss Carol Ann Spangler celebrated her 12th birthday with a party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Spangler of 141 Dunmore Rd.

After refreshments were served, the group spent the remainder of the afternoon swimming at Gold Cliff Park.

Those attending were: Steven Hatfield and Shelly Hatfield of Bloomfield; Ned Musselman, Gary George, Darlene Meyer, Ann Glitt, Dolly Marshall and the honored guest.

Miss Campbell Completes Plans For Sunday Rites

Miss Barbara Campbell of Williamsport has completed plans for her wedding to Harold E. Kerns, son of Dr. and Mrs. V. D. Kerns of N. Scioto St.

Miss Campbell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Campbell of Williamsport Route 2, is to become the bride of Mr. Kerns in an open church ceremony, to be read at 3:30 p. m. Sunday in Trinity Lutheran church.

The Rev. Carl Zehner is to officiate at the rites, which are to be preceded by a program of nuptial music by Mrs. Karl Hermann. Willard Arledge of near Circleville is to be soloist.

Attending Miss Campbell is to be Miss Donna Kerns, sister of the groom, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids are to be Mrs. Jean Romero of Chillicothe, and Mrs. Lois Anderson of Sumter, S. C., sisters of the bride.

Michael Easley of Portsmouth is to serve as best man for Mr. Kerns. Seating the guests are to be: Lt. Richard Anderson of Sumter, S. C., and Joe Blue, John Stevenson and Wes Edstrom Jr., all of Circleville.

Little Miss Colleen Romero is to be flower girl for the event, while Master Arthur Romero is to be ring bearer.

Music at a reception in the parish house, which is to follow the rites, is to be presented by Mrs. Leon Van Vleet.

Serving as hostesses are to be: Mrs. Wesley Edstrom Jr., Miss Elizabeth Stevenson and Mrs. Patty Karshner of Circleville, Miss Marilyn DeLong of Chillicothe and Mrs. Ronald Kaiser of Shadyside, Ohio.

Bethel Church Scene Of 25th Family Reunion

The twenty-fifth reunion of the Bower-Ortman-Pyle families was held at the Bethel church community house, with a basket dinner at the noon hour as highlight. A decorated cake and napkins printed for the occasion were used to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the family reunion.

Gifts tied with silver ribbon were presented to the youngest member present, Elizabeth Diggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Diggins; the eldest lady present, Mrs. Nellie Halderman; and the eldest man in attendance, Louis Bower.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Ortman and family received a gift for having one of the largest families present, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Halderman received a gift for having traveled the farthest to attend the event.

During a business session, officers for the 1956 reunion were elected as follows: Mrs. Clark Sheppard, president; Mrs. Henry Dunkel, vice president; and Russel Ortman, secretary-treasurer. The next reunion is to be held

Trinity Church Young Couples Club Has Meet

A meeting of the Young Couples Club of Trinity Lutheran church, which was held in the parish house, was attended by 29 members.

The hymn, "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Me" was sung by the group at the beginning of the meeting, which was conducted by the president, Roger May.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, the new intern and his wife, were welcomed into the club.

Plans for future meetings include a wiener roast to be held in September and a Halloween party in October.

Following the benediction, given by Mr. Johnson, refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ott and Mr. and Mrs. Romaine Wilson.

The members of the club attended a "Colorama of Music" held last weekend by the Circleville Drum and Bugle Corps.

Mrs. Barnhart Attends Reunion

Mrs. Emmett Barnhart of Northridge Rd. has returned to Circleville following a week's visit in Ashtabula.

While there, Mrs. Barnhart attended the 25th reunion of her graduating class. A total of 104 out of a class of 183 were present for the affair, which was highlighted by a banquet in a hotel in that city. Members were present from as far as New York City and California.

Accompanying Mrs. Barnhart on her visit were: her daughter, Betsy, and her mother, Mrs. Clyde Barnes of Norwalk. Betsy is visiting this week with her grandmother in her home in Norwalk.

On the second Sunday of August in 1956. The site of the meeting is to be decided later by a committee in charge.

Let's All Go Shopping!

By MRS. LEORA SAYRE
Home Demonstration Agent
Farm Extension Service

As beef moves into the wise food shopper's spotlight this week, LET'S GO SHOPPING with a willingness to save a little money and spend a little extra time at home in cooking methods that take a little longer.

The less tender cuts of meat are the less expensive ones and offer good summer eating. Some of the economy cuts are more reasonable now than at many other times during the year.

Now is the time when the homemaker can have more beef for her family if she will acquaint herself with the variety of less expensive cuts on the market and the many interesting ways to use them.

Some of the more economical cuts of beef include: flank, chuck arm, chuck blade, cube steaks and ground beef; short plate and brisket, neck, shank, rib ends and short ribs for stewing; pot roasts of rump, chuck arm, chuck blade, and heel of round for roasting.

BEEF HAS A good quantity of high quality protein, riboflavin, niacin, phosphorus and iron with some thiamine. The lean cuts of beef have the most protein, whereas the fat cuts furnish more food energy if the fat is eaten.

The wise food shopper will check the grade of meat before buying. Grades are good guides for buying meat for the use and cooking method intended. It is often economical to buy a large cut of meat and have it cut up to use the parts in different ways.

Consumers who want economy and nutritive value will want lean meat, where they can get more edible meat at a cheaper price. On the other hand, those who want flavor and tenderness will buy the fat beef. Distribution of fat in many thin layers or streaks throughout a piece of meat is called "marbling", and adds to both tenderness and flavor of the meat.

During this time of year, there is a 20 per cent spread between the front quarter—which is 32 per cent of the carcass weight—and the hind quarter—which is 48 per cent of the carcass weight. In the winter, this spread is reduced to 8 per cent.

When you bring beef home, unwrap it, wipe it off—but don't wash it because washing removes a lot of the flavor. Wrap it in wax paper and put it in the coolest part of the refrigerator. Remember, when freezing beef, bone it for economy.

DID YOU know that— In 1954, the per capita consumption of beef was about 78 pounds;

75 per cent of all meat is sold as fresh meat;

Two-thirds of the nation's meat supply is produced west of the Mississippi while two-thirds of it is eaten east of the Mississippi;

Two-thirds of the carcass contains the less expensive, less popular cuts. The beef animal is not all meat—out of 1000 pounds comes: 380 lbs. lean meat, 150 pounds fat, 85 pounds of bone and a few pounds lost to shrinkage and cutting.

Taxman Reports Employers Behind

CLEVELAND (P)—Parker C. Williams, director of the Cleveland Bureau, said employers in his district are $5,287,000 behind in turning over money from payroll taxes. That is an increase of $1,090,000 or 26 per cent in the last 17 months, he said.

A total of 7,763 employers are now on the delinquent list. Williams announced a new enforcement drive, its main target those businessmen who deduct the income tax from their employees' pay and then use the money for ready cash to help run their business.

Trucker Spots His Stolen Car

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (P)—Jack Flenner was driving his truck across a bridge when he saw in the rearview mirror the car that had been stolen from in front of his house earlier in the day. He blocked it with his truck. Two youths jumped out and fled. They were later captured on the Indiana side of the Ohio River and turned over to juvenile authorities.

Thugs Get $7000 In Cleveland Holdup

CLEVELAND (P)—Two gunmen who wore white handkerchiefs over their faces herded four employees into a vault and escaped with $7,000 from the St. Clair Savings & Loan Co. here yesterday.

Three girl tellers and the office manager were forced into the vault when the tellers failed to respond to an order from one of the bandits to "Give us all the money you have."

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Shoppers in the nation's food stores will find a variety of meats on the list of specials this weekend.

In beef, round roast will be a favorite and boneless chuck pot roast also will be popular. Steaks and prime ribs, however, will be a couple of cents a pound higher than a week ago in some stores.

Loins of pork will be a feature in some parts of the country and there will be good buys in lamb shoulder roasts.

The rise in egg prices goes on. Increases of two cents a dozen on large grade "A" whites are planned in stores in many sections of the country. Butter prices show little change.

Pork prices should start coming down in the months immediately ahead. The U.S. Department of Agriculture says farmers expect to market considerably more hogs during this half of the year than they did in the same months of 1954. Abundant supplies should bring lower prices.

Stormy weather sent vegetable prices up in some sections of the country during the week, but the list of good buys include potatoes, peppers, tomatoes, eggplant and cabbage.

Expansion Planned At Clinton Base

WILMINGTON (P)—The Clinton County Air Force Base, a permanent air reserve training base, is planning a $2,900,000 expansion program in the next two years, says Col. Delwin Bentley.

Col. Bentley is commander of the 2252nd Air Reserve Flying Center, one of two such permanent reserve training bases in the country. He said a new administration building costing $679,000, a 200-man dormitory at $308,000, a dining hall for $105,000, a new crash and fire station at $46,000, and expansion of parking aprons and taxi runways in the amount of $1,578,000 are planned.

Roundtown Retrospect

By Mac Noggle

By now, you probably know that a deep mystery concerning the pre-historic Adena Indians, who were in this region about two thousand years ago, has been solved. What will be written by the scientists will soon be an addition to the distinguished history of Pickaway County. Articles, believed to have been an Adena Indian medicine bag, were found in a burial tomb in the Nile's Mound, by Dr. Raymond S. Baby, curator of archaeology of the Ohio State Museum. Evidence points that this group of items was contained in a squirrel-skin bag, and it is the first proof that these early dwellers of Ohio used magic for medicine. What were the ceremonial mysteries, used by these people to prevent and cure diseases? There is no way of knowing about this particular early tribe of Indians—for there were no written records and the objects, which were unearthed, cannot tell the story. However, the same people of later generations, of which history has been written, no doubt practiced similar rites, handed down from generation to generation. Even today, among some of the sequestered tribes in the Southwest, there are still the shamans or medicine men, who are looked upon by their tribesmen as having supernatural powers through divine spirits, which they cannot refuse, even if they wanted to.

ONE GROUP of Indians believe that spirits of the dead cause nervous troubles, or the deer spirit causes tuberculosis (deer cough). Others believe that ghosts cause neurosis and that the spirit of the buffalo causes rheumatism of the shoulders, or a bear spirit would cause spasms. All these are cured by placating the offending spirit with various concoctions, by rites, songs, dances or by making hideous rackets by various means. Herbs and medicines were given — but only those received from the supernatural. Certain tribes had medicine bundles, which contained an assortment of magic objects. This, it is believed, is what was unearthed in the Jackson Township tomb. Herbs, which were believed to have curative powers, were always administered with ritualistic chants and even sleight-of-hand tricks.

Some tribes practiced bleeding, massaging or trepanning to effect cures, while others healed by the acts of ash-blowing, fire-jumping, sprinkling or by arrow-shooting.

The Iroquois strewed ashes and sprayed berry juice to asperse the sick ones. Always an offering was made—maybe it was tobacco or it might be incense, all accompanied by a chanted form of prayer, to drive out evil spirits. Some of the medicine men hypnotized themselves and their patients by their weird chants and the rhythm of the drum and the rattle.

Some wore spiritmasks, such as wolf-heads, bear-heads or buffalo-heads. Some of the shamanistic dances were for curing, while others were intended only to prevent illness. Many were intended for both.

YOU KNOW — the results obtained from these dances were not entirely imaginary. That they were wild and weird is admitted, but it must not be overlooked that there was definite therapy in the exercise of the dance—which most certainly would be an aid to recovery, especially from neurotic and mental ailments.

Don't let your doctor make you believe that psychotherapy is something new and quite modern. Tell him that it's nearly as old as the people of America — that about two thousand years ago, the medicine men on Pickaway County soil, may have given their patients—for what ailed them — a dose of ginseng and then were made to dance until the demon spirits let loose.

Coast Guard Bans Man's Commission

In certain respects the case parallels that of Eugene Landy who

Rattlesnake Cult Plans Sunday Rites

PINEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — As a testimony to their faith, members of a snake-handling cult will hold services Sunday with a rattlesnake that fatally bit one of their mountain preachers.

Preacher Oscar Sutton said the killer snake will be handled by a Pentecostal Church congregation at a "big" meeting just across the Kentucky line in Virginia.

The announcement was made during the funeral near here for Lee Valentine, who died 10 hours after being bitten by the rattler during services Saturday in Ft. Payne, Ala.

Snake handling violates Kentucky and Alabama law.

SIGNING OF THE GREENVILLE TREATY

The 1804 Lewis and Clark expedition from St. Louis to the mouth of the Columbia River in Oregon may have had its real start at Greenville, Ohio, nine years earlier.

The celebrated friendship of Meriwether Lewis and William Clark had its beginning in the General Wayne campaign in Western Ohio, and these two men were interested watchers at the signing of the Greenville Treaty by General Wayne and the colorful Indian Chieftains assembled on the banks of Greenville Creek during the summer of 1795.

Clark, younger brother of General George Rogers Clark, was a 25-year-old lieutenant in Wayne's army at this Treaty meeting. Lewis, at the age of 21, was a volunteer in this cam-

Gun-Wielding Widow Wins Home Fight

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 65-year-old gun-toting widow appeared today to have won the first round in her battle to continue living in her house at Solon which has been deemed unfit for human habitation.

The county health board has condemned the house and also the water from a well at the home which the board says is unfit for human consumption. But Mrs. Flora Stewart insists:

"This is my home. I ain't going nowhere and they might as well get used to it."

Pointing to her shotgun, which she took up as a precaution against eviction by health board, Mrs. Stewart said, "I learned to use this shotgun in the Pennsylvania woods."

Solon Solicitor Martin Wegman

suggested the woman be permitted to remain in the home where she lives alone on $40 monthly relief payments.

"She's been living in that house and drinking that water for 35 years," he said. "I'm certainly not going to recommend that she be evicted."

Italian Company Seeks A-Reactor

GENEVA (AP)—Charles H. Weaver, vice president of the Westinghouse Electric Corp., has confirmed he has had preliminary conversations with officials of the Fiat Co. of Turin concerning the sale of an atomic reactor.

Weaver, who is director of Westinghouse's atomic power division, said Antonio Valtetta, president of Fiat, had discussed the possibility

Top Toledo Cafe Mistress Is Dead

TOLEDO (AP)—Grace Estelle Smith, 72, operator of Smith's Cafeteria and Service Restaurant and one of the nation's leading restaurateurs, died yesterday.

Besides the cafeteria, Miss Smith had operated five other Toledo eating establishments at various times. She was the only woman ever to serve as president of the National Restaurant Assn.

She also was a past president of the Ohio State Restaurant Assn. and the Toledo Restaurant Assn.

of buying a reactor with him here.

Weaver said Valtetta's plan was to turn the reactor over to the University of Turin for operation and use some of the power produced for Fiat's plants there.

Sokolsky's These Days

It is not enough to love music; it is necessary to compose and play so that all the world will love music. This, somehow, is accomplished here or I, and thousands of others, would not attend these concerts which are difficult to reach, on unbelievably poor roads, and with the most primitive physical facilities on the grounds. But as a youngster said to me: "Who cares? The music is wonderful!"

One evening is devoted to "Tanglewood on Parade," a potpourri of everything that is done here, including Opera as managed by Boris Goldovsky. This year, Arthur Fiedler, of the Boston "Pops," ended that evening with Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever." That may not be in the manner of Debussy, but it was in the best of taste, for it reminded us that Tanglewood is in the United States.

Here "The Star-Spangled Banner" is never played. Maybe, Fiedler wanted to remind these musicians that the air they breathe in the Berkshires is American air—even if musical!

Friendship Nets Cash, Not Jail

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—His friendship for a Milwaukee optometrist caused Fred A. Thomas a lot of trouble but the red-haired restaurant worker will get $5,000 from the man's estate.

Dr. Albert Napientek, the optometrist, died in a Miami Beach hotel room last April 13.

A week later Thomas was found in a motel room at Dunedin with $60,480 of Napientek's money under the bed. Thomas claimed the optometrist gave him the cash to invest in a barbecue stand, but a charge of larceny was filed.

Harold Shapiro, attorney for Napientek's widow, said Wednesday Thomas has agreed to settle his claim for $5,000.

The larceny charge is expected to be dropped.

Top Winners Announced In 4-H Sewing Competition

The annual Pickaway County judging and placing of 4-H projects in sewing, and projects other than foods, was held recently in the fairgrounds coliseum.

Two hundred and thirty members with an "A" average for the club year's endeavors, as well as enthusiastic and loyal advisors, relatives and friends, assembled for the all-day session of fellowship, observation, review and placements.

According to Mrs. Leora Sayre, Pickaway County home demonstration agent in charge, the members were so loyal to the club motto, "Making the Best Better" and "Learn To Do By Doing", that the selection of the top 10 in each classification was very difficult.

Judges for the sewing projects were: Mrs. Jack Marks, home demonstration agent of Ross County, and Miss Ethel Bower of Hocking County.

THE PLACEMENTS in the LET'S SEW class of 53 projects were: Marilyn Hay, Duval Busy Fingers, first. Her project will be exhibited at the Ohio State Fair. Kay Trump, Monroe Stitches, second; Teresa Rhoads, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, third; Joann Glitt, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, fourth; Sharon Fowler, Monroe Stitches, fifth;

Carol Ginther, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, sixth; Linda Thompson, Cook, Sew and Chatter, seventh; Pamela Mowery, Monroe Stitches, eighth; Sandy Stover, Duval Busy Fingers, ninth; and Deanna Beam, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, tenth. Beverly Speakman and Rebecca Rockey were given special mention for outstanding work as associate members.

For the ARTICLES TO USE AND WEAR class of 43 projects: Sue Ann Radcliff, Jackson Jolly Basters and Tasters, first. Her project will be exhibited at the state fair. Josian Glitt, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, second; Donna Mowery of the Jackson Jolly Basters and Tasters, eighth; Betty Huffman, Saltcreek Victory Stitches, ninth; and Barbara Barch, Duval Busy Fingers, tenth.

In the EASY TO MAKE COTTON DRESS class of 51 entries: Joyce Hayslip, Mary Ellen Goeller, and Ann Smith of Logan Elm Sunny Sewers rated first, second, and third places. Rebecca Collins of Saltcreek Victory Stitches, was fourth; Janet Stoer and Ethelyn Hall of Monroe Stitches, fifth and sixth places; Susan Lemon and Linda Baum of Duval Busy Fingers, seventh and eighth; Marlene Crumley, Walnut Sew and Sew, ninth; and Nancy Baker, Duval Busy Fingers, tenth.

Of the class of 24 taking first year in SCHOOL DRESS, first place went to Verna Alice Kuhn of Duval Busy Fingers. Her project will be exhibited at the state fair. Other placements were: Patsy Lauderman, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, second; Janet Bringer, Monroe Stitches, third; Joann Ginther, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, fourth; Donna Jean Walker, Jackson Jolly Basters and Tasters, fifth; Carol Baum, Duval Busy Fingers, sixth; Patty Watson and Carolyn Dean of Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, seventh and eighth; Judith Dennis, Monroe Stitches, ninth; and Kay Pout of Saltcreek Stitch and Chatter, tenth.

IN THE ADVANCED SCHOOL DRESS class, Alice Baum of Duval Busy Fingers, placed first; Margaret Acord, Bloomfield Busy Bodies, second; Linda Miller, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, third; Carolyn Newton, Duval Busy Fingers, fourth; Arlene Finch, Monroe Stitches, fifth; Barbara Ginther, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, sixth; Suzanne Crites, Atlanta Silver Thimble, seventh; Donna Hardman, Saltcreek Victory Stitches, eighth; Betty Roberts, Atlanta Silver Thimble, ninth; and Carol Reed, Duval Busy Fingers, tenth. Nancy Cromley of the Bloomfield Club was given recognition repeating this project as a college girl.

For the chic fashions in the sports category, first place went to Barbara Culp of Circle Sew Straight Teenettes. Barbara will model her costume at the state fair. A close second was won by Alice Baum of Duval Busy Fingers; Suzanne Crites, Atlanta Silver Thimble, third; Carlynn Gulick, Scioto Hardy Workers, fourth; Linda Miller, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, fifth; Patricia Hott, Scioto Hardy Workers, sixth; Betty Roberts, Atlanta Silver Thimble, seventh; Carol Jinks, Duval Busy Fingers, eighth; Sue Ater, Atlanta Silver Thimble, ninth; and Mary Ellen Downs, Buckeye Stitches and Baskets, tenth.

The class of 22 in LOUNGING went all-out for intricate detail in stitchery and decoration. First place went to Edith Defenbaugh of Saltcreek Stitch and Chatter, whose project will be exhibited at the state fair. Mary Ann Noecker, Walnut Sew and Sew, was second; Patricia Hott, Scioto Hardy Workers, third; Rita Jane Binkley, Merry Mixers, fourth. Jo and Flo Goldschmidt, Circle Sew Straight Teenettes, tied for fifth place; Patty Strous, Saltcreek Victory Stitches, sixth; Barbara Sieverts, Circle Sew Straight Teenettes, seventh; Carlynn Gulick, Scioto Hardy Workers, eighth; Sylvia Smith, Merry Mixers, ninth; and Anna Swartz, Saltcreek Victory Stitches, tenth.

For the more advanced clothing projects the following placements were made:

DRESS-UP DRESS ONE — Linda Wilson, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, first; Miriam Ward and Donna Drake, Scioto Hardy Workers, second and third; Carolyn Mowery, Monroe Stitches, fourth; Juliann Smith, Cook, Sew and Chatter, fifth; Carolyn Valentine, Circle Sew Straight Teenettes, sixth; Ruth Allison, Walnut Sew and Sew, seventh; and Sue Ater, Atlanta Silver Thimble, eighth.

DRESS-UP DRESS TWO — Connie Wertman, Circle Sew Straight Teenettes, first; Fonda Liston, Monroe Stitches, second; Nancy Cromley, Bloomfield Busy Bodies, third; Lydia DeLong, Buttons and Bows, fourth.

In the TAILORED class of just two entries, first place went to Sidney Graves of Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, who will model her project at the state fair. Lydia DeLong, Buttons and Bows, was awarded second place.

COMPLETE COSTUME projects were displayed and reviewed by Zoe Dell Riggins, Cook, Sew, and Chatter, and Nancy Cromley, Bloomfield Busy Bodies. Both of these are scheduled for modeling at the state fair—Miss Riggins in the high school group and Miss Cromley as a college girl.

Linda Wilson, first place winner in the combined DRESS-UP DRESS group, was selected as the Pickaway County model for a Columbus store style revue at the State Fair.

For the several other projects completed with A grade ratings the following placements were announced:

PERSONAL ACCOUNTS: Barbara Stoer, Monroe Stitches, will receive a special ribbon for an advanced project efficiently completed. For the first year accounts, Miriam Ward, Scioto Hardy Workers, received first place; Weta Mae Leist of Buttons and Bows, second; and Beverly Southward, Circle Sew Straight Teenettes, third.

CHILD CARE: Lorna Hatfield, Bloomfield Busy Bodies, will receive a special ribbon for ably repeating this project. Edith Defenbaugh, Saltcreek Stitch and Chatter, and Phyllis Dewey, Deercreek Busy Bees did equally enthusiastic and efficient work in the first year for this category and will receive first place ribbons.

For ROOM and-or HOME DECORATION, Miriam Ward, Scioto Hardy Workers, was placed first. Barbara Stoer and Judith Dennis of Monroe Stitches rated second and fourth; Jimetta Dunn, Saltcreek Stitch and Chatter, third; fifth and sixth places went to Judy Thompson and Beverly Minor of Deercreek Busy Bees.

IN THE PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT course the placements in Class One went to Linda Stoer, Monroe Stitches, first; Margaret Acord, Bloomfield Busy Bodies, second; Edith Defenbaugh, Saltcreek Stitch and Chatter, third; Weta Mae Leist, Buttons and Bows, fourth; Lorna Hatfield, Bloomfield Busy Bodies, fifth; and Barbara Culp, Circle Sew Straight Teenettes.

For Class Two, Barbara Stoer of Monroe Stitches was placed first; Zoe Dell Riggins, Cook, Sew and Chatter, second; Fonda Liston, Monroe Stitches, third; Sidney Graves and Linda Wilson, Logan Elm Sunny Sewers, fourth and fifth; Roberta Lightle, Monroe Stitches, sixth; Julianne Smith, Cook, Sew and Chatter, seventh; Carolyn Mowery, Monroe Stitches, eighth; and Beverly Southward, Circle Sew Straight Teenettes, ninth.

Piqua Machinist Held In Shooting

PIQUA (AP)—Terry Dodson 32-year-old Piqua machinist, will be given a hearing tomorrow on a charge of shooting with intent to wound. Dodson was arraigned yesterday on the charge following a shooting at the Piqua Tubing Division of Armco Steel Corp. Foreman Frank Ventura, 53, was shot three times in the left leg. Police said Dodson surrendered at headquarters, saying he had shot Ventura in an attempt "to cripple him and get him out of there."

No Manager Really Sounds Convincing

3 Leading Teams In AL Playing Touch-And-Go In Tightly-fought Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Each contending manager in the American League maintains his guys are going to win, but none of them really sounds convincing.

Just a couple of days ago, Al Lopez of Cleveland said there wasn't much chance of one club getting hot and racing off with the flag—but if any club could do it, his Indians could.

Chicago's Marv Marion, sure his White Sox will come out on top, nevertheless conceded he couldn't see all that New York talent going to rot.

Casey Stengel patted his Yankees on the head and warned that the Boston Red Sox were not to be written off.

So what happens? Detroit up and busts Cleveland for the second straight day Wednesday 9-5. Boston wallops the Yanks off a seven-game streak 7-1 behind the excellent pitching of Ike Delock.

All of which left the Yanks just one game and three percentage points ahead of the White Sox, who were idle. Chicago is half a game up on the Indians who are but two games ahead of fourth-place Boston.

The Tigers whacked Bob Lemon for six hits and five runs in three innings.

Jim Bunning gave up solo homers to Larry Doby, Bobby Avila and Gene Woodling, before Babe Birrer came on to win in relief. Al Kaline, back up to .350 to top major league hitters, and Bill Tuttle had three hits each in the Tigers' 14-hit attack.

Hoot Evers suffered an eye injury when struck by his own foul in a pinch role for the Indians.

The Yanks, who three times have won seven in a row this season, gave up their chance at eight straight as Boston scored five times in the sixth inning. Grady Hatton and Jim Piersall laced Bob Turley for back-to-back triples to get the frame under way.

Delock, a 25-year-old right-hander, checked the Bombers on two hits until the seventh when Elston Howard's double and a pinch single by Joe Collins scored the Yanks' run. He gave five hits for the night.

A two-night doubleheader between Baltimore and the Nats at Washington was rained out.

In the National League, Brooklyn lost its second straight to New York 5-1; Milwaukee homered past St. Louis 11-4; Chicago regained fifth place from Cincinnati 3-2, and Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 6-4.

Willie Mays led the Giants' attack with a triple, two singles and a walk and figured in all of New York's runs. Ramon Monzant, going the distance for the first time in the majors, won his second while scattering eight hits and striking out eight.

Del Crandall's grand-slammer in the eighth put the Braves beyond reach, following earlier homers by Andy Pafo and Ed Mathews that had built a 5-4 lead.

Kochheiser Team Lists Final Totals

Banks Leads Hitters With .450; Hosler's 3-1 Pitching Mark Best

Dick Banks, who will be a junior at Circleville High School in the fall, was the leading hitter for Circleville. Kochheiser's baseball squad this summer, according to statistics released today.

Banks powdered the ball for a .450 average, just ahead of Mike Hosler, who blasted out a .411 average. Included in Banks' hit total were three doubles and three triples; Hosler collected two doubles, two triples and a home run.

Two other Kochheiser batters hit over the .300 mark. Ed Tomlinson, centerfielder, had a .370 average and Walt Sieverts, first baseman, hit .310.

Circleville Kochheiser's last week completed a successful summer season. They won 12 of 19 games played, winning the Junior League here and finishing second in the South Division of the Central Ohio Summer League.

THE LEADING runs-batted-in starter with the Cubs these days, belted a pair of homers for all of Chicago's runs. Smoky Burgess hit a two-run shot in the first for the Redlegs before Bob Rush settled down for his 10th victory.

The Phils got three runs in the first, then Elroy Face knuckled down while the Pirates battled back with 16 hits, 11 of them off loser Curt Simmons. Richie Ashburn, tops in NL hitting, pulled a back muscle trying to beat out a hit and left the game in the second inning.

man for Circleville was Hosler, the third straight season that he has led the team in that department. He also led the team in hits for the second straight season.

Leading pitchers on the squad were Hosler, who won three while dropping only one, and Jim McConnell, who won six and lost five.

All of the Kochheiser squad will be back for action at C.H.S. next year.

"Citius, Altius, Fortius" (Swift-er, Higher, Stronger) is the motto of the Olympic Games.

Lopez Says There's Hope For Indians

DETROIT (AP)—Hold off on those Cleveland obituaries.

The Indians may be gasping, but skipper Al Lopez says they're not dead—yet.

"We're still in pretty good shape, even though we're a game and a half out of first place," said Lopez today.

Only last Saturday night the Indians held what appeared to be a firm two-game grip on first place. They seemed ready to make a run for another.

Then the pitching crumbled.

In the last three games Lopez has called on 12 pitchers—four in each game. He used Bob Lemon, Bob Feller, Ray Narleski and Art Houtteman yesterday but wound up on the short end of a 9-5 score to the Detroit Tigers.

Lemon lasted only three innings. He was cuffed for five runs.

Much of Cleveland's troubles stems from a serious decline in production of the "Big Three"—Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia.

They've compiled an over-all mark of 35-27, compared to 47-19 at this time last year.

Wynn leads with 14-8. Lemon is 13-8 and Garcia 8-11. A year ago today Wynn was 15-9, Lemon 17-5 and Garcia 15-5.

Lopez is anything but happy over the Tribe's hitting. Al Smith

Satterfield Cops Win Over Valdes

CHICAGO (AP)—The unpredictable heavyweight slugger, Bob Satterfield, scored a unanimous decision last night over Cuban Nino Valdes, a leading contender for Rocky Marciano's crown.

Satterfield, a Chicagoan, dealt big Valdes his 10th defeat in 45 bouts in a savage 10-rounder in Chicago Stadium.

Satterfield hammered the Cuban giant to the floor in the final round, but he couldn't keep him there. The Chicago Negro, a 3 to 1 underdog, had to settle for a decision.

Jaycee Youngsters Shattering Par

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—Par-breaking rounds and two eagle highlighted the first round of the International Jaycee Junior Golf championships as 16-year-old Sam Carmichael of Martinsville, Ind., grabbed a stroke lead with 65.

Phil Rodgers of San Diego, is the only regular over the .300 mark.

Calif., carded a sixunder-par 34-32-66, including an eagle on the par-four 12th.

Dick Foote of Santa Ana, Calif., tied for medal honors with Odell Massey of Durham N. C., and Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, after the two qualifying rounds, captured the tourney medal and third place with a 3433-67.

Canadian Claims Pitching Mark

SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Que. (AP)—An 18-year-old Shawinigan Falls youth today claimed a pitchathon record after pitching a baseball steadily for nine hours.

Georges Francoeur's effort beats a mark of six hours and 45 minutes set in Montreal recently by Jean-Pierre Roy, former pitcher with Montreal Royals of the International League. Roy claimed his time as a record.

Young Francoeur tossed the ball about 4,440 times. He wore out about a dozen catchers.

Sam Boulmetis, leading rider at Monmouth Park, was urged by a friend to become a jockey because of his size.

Idle Pay Claims Drop Sharply

COLUMBUS (AP)—The state Bureau of Unemployment Compensation says the number of claimants newly unemployed in Ohio dropped to 5,891 in the week ended

Saturday, compared with 7,535 the previous week.

Bureau figures indicate 35,159 claimants were out of work one week or more during the week ended Aug. 13, compared with 34,531 in the preceding week.

2,000 Shotgun Artists Due To Vie For Gold And Glory

VANDALIA (AP)—About 2,000 of the nation's leading shotgun artists are scheduled to be on hand here Friday for the opening of the Grand American trapshooting tournament and for a chance to dip into a horde of gold and glory.

The Friday-Saturday-Sunday preliminaries call for 400 targets at 16 yards, 200 at handicaps and 100 doubles, giving the deadeye Dicks and Doras plenty of time to sharpen their shooting eyes for the title races.

Something new will be added this year in the handicap events. Through trapshooting's long history, no marksman has been placed more than 25 yards back of the trap from which the flying clays emerge—but at least eight of 'em will be back at 27 yards this time under new handicap rules.

In handicap events the marksmen are placed from 17 to 27 yards behind the traps, the yardage being figured on known ability and scores on registered targets. Some of the guys and gals are getting so good that the handicap committee approved the new 26 and 27-yard marks. The hotshots can't figure out why they should be penalized so heavily because only one man—Walter Beaver of Berwyn, Pa., in 1933—ever won the big Grand American Handicap from 25 yards. No one has copped the event from 24 yards, and only four times since 1900 has it been won from 23 yards.

Generally some newcomer has picked up around $10,000 as the victor from inside the 20-yard markers. Last year it was 14-year-old Jack Egan of New York City who broke 99 of 100 from 19 yards to triumph.

Aaron Bird, manager of the Amateur Trapshooting Assn., said only eight of the country's thousands of shooters were 27-yardsers this season—one a woman. She's Mrs. Evelyn Primm, the sharp-shooting Los Angeles beauty.

Others to fire from the extreme yardage at the "grand" are Maynard Henry of Los Angeles, president of the ATA; Merle Stockdale of Los Angeles; Arnold Reigger, the stocky airplane plant worker from Seattle, Wash., who was the star of the 1954 "grand"; Tom Lynott, retired professional from Salt Lake City; Vic Reinders of Waukesha, Wis., the U. of Wisconsin professor; Dan Orlich of Reno, Nev., and Julius Petty, the fur dealer and duck hunter from Stuttgart, Ark.

None of them has won the "grand."

The 1954 trapshoot drew a record 2,008 entrants, and that ATA has set the goal at 2,050 for this season.

Should the 2,000 mark be approached or bettered, more than 1,500,000 targets would be thrown during the week, and the same number of 12-gauge shotgun shells fired. Entry fees for the week, plus the unique optional wagering system in which each may be on his own prowess, would cost each shooter in the neighborhood of $400. Add the cost of meals, transportation, housing and shotgun shells, and it mounts to a tidy sum. For the full program, each shooter would fire away more than $100 in ammunition alone.

But the returns for the amateurs can be in the big money class. Only the amateurs may win cash or enter the optional. The professionals, in contrast to other sports, fire for trophies only.

2 Fly Casting Records Set

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Myron Gregory of San Francisco set two records on the opening day of the annual national fly casting tournament.

He broke the best cast record by casting 212 feet in the salmon fly event yesterday and averaged 200 2-3 feet in his three best casts in the same event to better that mark.

Jon Tarantino, 18-year-old freshman at the University of California, won the trout fly distance cast with an average of 169 feet.

Ex-Redleg Haunts Cincy In 3-2 Loss

CINCINNATI (AP)—It was an old Redleg who knocked the Cincinnati Reds back into sixth place in the National League last night.

Hank Sauer, who was a favorite and then a target of lusty boos at Crosley Field only a few years ago, got back into the Chicago Cubs lineup for the first time since Aug. 5 and blasted two home runs which gave the Bruisers a 3-2 victory over the Rhinelanders.

Sauer, who hasn't been used very much this season, was benched on Aug. 5 because of weak hitting but he couldn't be accused of that last night.

His first wallop out of the park came in the second inning after Ernie Banks had singled and wiped out a 2-0 Cincinnati lead. His second circuit smash came in the fourth and proved to be the deciding marker.

The Cubs could have been excused, too, if they had folded up completely after the Reds' first inning. In that frame Johnny Temple opened with a single and Smoky Burgess socked a home run. That was exactly the way the Reds started Tuesday night when they clobbered the Cubs, 11-2.

The battle for fifth place in the league was to be resumed this afternoon with Art Fowler the likely Cincinnati starting pitcher against Paul Minner.

A Redleg victory would push the locals ahead of the Cubs again.

Ohio's Weekend Fishing Prospects Said Only Fair

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio lakes and streams will offer fair prospects to fishermen this weekend, according to state experts.

The wildlife division's weekly forecast, by sections, included: Northwestern — Lakes and streams clear and in normal condition; fair prospects for bluegills, crappies, catfish and bass.

Southeastern — General outlook fair, with best results expected from Atwood, Leeville, Seneca, Clendening and Tappan Lakes. Central and southern—Nearly all streams clear or slightly roily. Some fish taken from Delaware Lake and Hoover reservoirs, Buckeye Lake and Rocky Fork Lake.

Southwestern — Weekend outlook fair, streams in fair to good condition. Considerable fish taken from Big Miami, Stillwater and Mad Rivers and Tawawa and Leatherwood Creeks.

Ohio Little League Entry Defeated

2 Ohioans Due To Give Boost To Browns

HIRAM (AP)—Two big Ohioans who gave the Cleveland Browns headaches in the College All-Star game last Friday try Saturday night to help the Browns who open a five-game exhibition schedule in Akron against the Green Bay Packers.

Sam Palumbo of Cleveland, a center and linebacker from Notre Dame, and Tom Jones of Cincinnati, a defensive tackle from Miami, definitely will play for the national professional football champs, Coach Paul Brown said.

Jones, 24, and Palumbo, 23, have been with the Browns only for this week's practice. Other rookies against whom they're competing for jobs have had a month to get used to the Browns' system.

Palumbo's brilliant play for the All-Stars in Chicago and the decision last week by center Jack Locklear, Auburn rookie, to quit the Browns because of a heart murmur are two factors which increase Sam's chances of seeing considerable action.

As for Jones, Don Colo, a defensive regular, suffered a broken bone in his right hand in the All-Star game and will have it in a cast for a couple of weeks. John Sandusky will move into Colo's spot, but Jones is assured of added opportunity to get into the games. The Packers looked good last week in beating the New York Giants 32-24.

Dayton NCR Wins Ohio Softball Title

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The East Central Regional Women's Softball Tournament opens here tomorrow with Dayton National Cash Register qualifying to play because of its championship in the Ohio Women's Softball Tourney.

Dayton won the Ohio laurels by beating Columbus Julian Applance, 12-3, in the championship game last night. It was Columbus' second loss to the Dayton team which went through the tourney undefeated.

Dayton will be one of eight teams entered in the regional tourney, Ohio, Michigan and West Virginia will have teams.

LeBaron Pitches 4 TC Passes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Little Eddie LeBaron, a midget among pro football giants at only 168 pounds, pitched four touchdown passes to give the Washington Redskins a well deserved 31-28 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

The game, played before 77,935, was decided by the margin of a field goal in the second period—a 20-yard boot by Vic Janowicz, former Ohio State star.

LeBaron pitched two touchdown passes to Ralph Thomas and two more to Johnny Caron, the last one for 51 yards.

"RELIABILITY"

AT PICKAWAY MOTORS we place great importance on reliability. Each car is checked, tested and serviced with one idea in mind — to make sure it will give reliable service. Most of our used cars are traded in on new Fords and come from local owners; they are far above the average.

"RELIABILITY" of our company is just another way of saying we try to sell and service by the Golden Rule. We want you, the buyer to be absolutely satisfied. Our reputation and our A-1 guarantee are for your protection.

Trade with your Circleville Ford Dealer and see for yourself. Talk to Gene Ashworth, Robert Shaw, Travis Kessel, Carl Mader or Homer Ezell. Our sales staff does not believe in high pressure selling. We just try to make you at home and help you select the car that best suits your needs.

NOTICE

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE
In pursuance of an Order of Sale in Partition issued out of the Court of Common Pleas, Pickaway County, Ohio, wherein James B. Cook plaintiff and Elizabeth L. Hopkins, et al., defendants, and in Cause No. 21424 and said Court, I will offer at public sale the residence of the late William H. Hopkins, in Monroe Township, Pickaway County, Ohio, on Saturday the 10th day of September 1955, at 2:00 o'clock P. M., the following described real estate, situate in the County of Pickaway and State of Ohio, and in the Township of Monroe, to-wit:

PARCEL ONE:
First Tract: Being Tract No. 5 of the subdivision of the lands of Amelia A. Keller and Benjamin O. Keller among their children and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a stone in the line of Smiley Hughes land and corner to Tract No. 4, thence with the line of Tract No. 4 N. 86 deg. W. 15.98 chains to a stone in line of W. C. Bostwick's land; thence with line S. 4 deg. W. 9.40 chains to a stone; thence S. 86 deg. E. 40.45 chains to an iron pin in the line of Clark Run Road; thence with said Road N. 7 deg. W. 4.40 chains to a stone corner to Smiley Hughes land; thence with a line of said Hughes land N. 86 deg. 30' W. 23.56 chains to a stone another corner to said Hughes land; thence with a line of his lines N. 25 deg. 45' E. 4.42 chains to the beginning, containing 26.19 acres of land, 10.35 acres are a part of Original Survey No. 6681 and 15.84 acres are a part of Original Survey No. 4289.

Second Tract: Being Tract No. 6 of the subdivision of the lands of Amelia A. Keller and Benjamin O. Keller among their children and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at an iron pin in the Clark Run Road and corner to Tract No. 5; thence with the south line of Tract No. 5 N. 86 deg. W. 40.45 chains to a stone in line of W. C. Bostwick's land; thence with a line of his land S. 4 deg. W. 6.58 chains to a stone; thence S. 86 deg. E. 31.11 chains to an iron pin in the Clark Run Road; thence with said Road N. 7 deg. W. 4.11 chains to the beginning, containing 27 acres of land, more or less, of which 12.25 acres are in Original Survey No. 6681 and 14.75 acres are in Original Survey No. 4289.

Third Tract: Being Tract No. 7 of the subdivision of the lands of Amelia A. Keller and Benjamin O. Keller among their children and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at an iron pin in the Clark Run Road and corner to Tract No. 6; thence with the south line of Tract No. 6 N. 86 deg. E. 41.31 chains to a stone in line of W. C. Bostwick's land; thence with his line and also with a line of the Willis Jones land S. 4 deg. W. 10.70 chains to a white oak corner to Frederick Owens land; thence with three lines of said Owens land S. 87 deg. 45' E. 5.82 chains to a stone and S. 85 deg. E. 21.52 chains to a stone on the west side of Clark Run Road; thence with said Road N. 7 deg. W. 4.69 chains to the beginning, containing 30.40 acres of land, more or less, of which 17.25 acres are a part of Original Survey No. 6681 and 13.15 acres are a part of Original Survey No. 4289.

Said three tracts being the same premises conveyed to Thomas H. Bennett and Catherine Bennett, his wife, by deed from William H. Kendrick and wife, dated August 14, 1914 and recorded in Volume 93, pages 97 and 98 of the Deed records of said Pickaway County, Ohio.

PARCEL TWO:
Fourth Tract: Beginning at a stone in the road leading to Mount Sterling; thence N. 28 1/2 deg. W. 44 poles to a stone in the line of Bostwick; thence S. 86 deg. E. 30.40 chains to a stone; thence E. 20 poles and 17 links to the beginning, containing 2 acres and 97 poles, more or less, and being a part of Adam Shepherd's Survey No. 4289.

Fifth Tract: Beginning at a stone in the Mount Sterling road, N.E. corner to John Self and in the line of John W. Buschick; thence N. 54 poles and 10 links to a stone; thence W. 20 poles and 16 links to a stone; thence N. 21 poles and 3 links to a stone; thence the line of Curry's Survey; thence S. 84 poles and 9 links to a stone in the line of Curry's Survey; thence S. 102 poles and 12 links to the beginning, containing 100 acres or less, more or less, and the eastern part of which lies in Survey No. 4289 and the western part of which lies in John Rose's Survey No. 6681. Being the same real estate conveyed to William H. Kendrick by deed dated August 5, 1907, recorded in Vol. 84, page 472 of the Deed records of Pickaway County, Ohio.

Said last two tracts being the land described and conveyed by deed from Charles H. Radcliff, the Sheriff of Pickaway County, Ohio, to The Virginia Bank, dated January 18th, 1933, at 4:15 P. M., in the office of the County Recorder in and for Pickaway County, Ohio, and there duly recorded in Vol. 115, page 191, of the Pickaway County, Ohio, Deed Records.

Said Premises Appraised at PARCEL ONE appraised at $285.00 per acre of a total sum of $285.00. PARCEL TWO appraised at $285.00 per acre or a total sum of $285.00, and said premises cannot be sold for less than two thirds of the appraised value.

Terms of Sale: Ten Per Cent (10 per cent) of the purchase price in cash upon affirmation of sale and delivery of deed, said sale to be subject to the rights of the present tenant, to the possession of said real estate and grant unto purchaser or purchasers full seeling privileges and the right to the use of the residence of the late William H. Bennett.

CHARLES H. RADCLIFF,
Sheriff Pickaway County, Ohio
Aug. 4, 11, 18, 25, Sept. 1, 1955.

Yesterday's Answer

Slayer Of Parents Indicted By Jury

COLUMBUS (AP)—Robert J. Miller, 19, who police said confessed to stabbing and hammering his mother and step-father to death, was indicted on two counts of first degree murder yesterday. The bodies of Gomer P. Thomas, 50, and his wife, Betty, 39, were found in the bedroom of their Columbus home Aug. 8. Police said Miller admitted killing them after a quarrel with his mother over his dating a 16-year-old girlfriend.

Needy Persons To Share Estate

CLEVELAND (AP)—Crippled children, the blind, the aged and worthy persons seeking an education will receive more than $300,000 under terms of the will of Martha

W. Hoffman filed here yesterday. Mrs. Hoffman, 87, died Aug. 11 at her home in Cleveland Heights. She was the widow of Robert Hoffman, who was an engineer for the city of Cleveland for 50 years. Young slamon swim downstream tail first.

Gunman Gets Cash
COLUMBUS (AP)—A pistol-wielding gunman yesterday robbed the Main Finance Co. in east Columbus, escaping with an undetermined sum of cash. Company officials declined to estimate the loss.

Pickaway County Youths Score Well At Hereford Field Day

D. Hedges 2nd For Individual Scoring Honors

Wonder Workers Of Walnut Second In Group Prizes

Pickaway County was well represented among the winners at a recent 4-H Hereford Field Day judging contest held at the Fairgrounds here.

Don Hedges, of the Duvall Go Getters, was second in the individual scoring. The Walnut Wonder Workers were second in the team judging.

First in the individual division was Jack Hill, of Ross County, with 366 points out of a possible 400. Hedges had 349. A Fayette County team was high with 930 points out of a possible 1,200; the Walnut Township team had 881, barely one point ahead of a Ross County team.

The program included: a judging contest, fitting and grooming demonstration and type demonstration. Hereforers were donated by the following: 3 from the Bowling Farm; 2 from K. E. Dountz; 2 from Paul Dillon; 5 from Clarence Maxson; 4 from Carl Britton; and 2 from John and Elizabeth Stevenson, all of Pickaway County.

TOP INDIVIDUAL prize was a show halter with the runner-up getting a brush and comb set. First prize in team events was a brush and comb set; second, a halter and show stick; third and fourth, show sticks.

Prizes were donated as follows: six show sticks, by the Bowling Farm; show halter, by John and Elizabeth Stevenson; four brushes, by Carl Britton and Joe Peters; four Scotch combs, by Vaughn Grubb; and three rope halters, by Paul Dillon.

Scores were as follows: Marvin Reichelderfer, 299; Wanda Maxson, 265; Ramon Maxson, 249. Team total, 813 (tie for sixth).

Pat Scott, 249; Robert Montgomery, 266; Rosalyn Marting, 298. Team total, 813 (tie for sixth).

JACKIE HOPPE, 315 (sixth); Barbara Kneisley, 332 (fourth);

Youth Center Seen State Fair Asset

Gratification because the 1955 Ohio State Fair will see the establishment of the Ohio State Fairgrounds as the Youth Center for all Ohio youth groups is expressed by D. Robert Jones, assistant manager in charge of the Junior Fair.

"As the first step in the big new plan for the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus, our Youth Center will arouse new interest in the prospects ahead for the Ohio State Fair as one of the leading expositions in the country," he says.

Jerry Hoppes, 283. Team total, 930 (first). Otto Roll, 316 (fifth); Jack Hill, 366 (first); Don Roll, 198. Team total, 880 (third).

Ed Dountz, 265; Don Hedges, 349 (second); Ned Rader, 259. Team total, 873 (fourth). Don Clever, 316; Robert Whitten, 282; Larry Hill, 249. Team total, 847 (fifth).

Roger Schneider, 299; Danny Dillon, 249; Leroy Owens, 333 (third). Team total, 881 (second).

BOB LIST, 298. Gary Stoddard, 266. Russell Fisher, 249.

Son Of Helen Hayes Tries To Ignore Famous Parents

NEW YORK, (AP)—There are both advantages and disadvantages to being the son of well-known parents. Some people might say that any break you get is thanks to pull. But when you produce—brother, you'd better produce, for the eyes of the world are on you.

Such are the problems buzzing around the head of a cool young fellow named Jim MacArthur, the son of writer Charles MacArthur and actress Helen Hayes. But if he's aware of them, he's not talking about them. At the age of 17 he's being dealt into the game slowly—and he's playing his cards close to the vest. The game is acting.

Jim MacArthur is the sort of guy parents are proud of because he's a guy who's proud of his parents. He merely wants to make sure he isn't trading on their name. He wants to move on his own merits.

Just one week from tonight, on Thursday, Aug. 25, he makes his television debut in "Deal A Blow" on CBS-TV's Climax. In that drama he plays the role of a youth who's badly misunderstood by his elders.

But when you meet Jim MacArthur in real life it's hard to see how his elders could misunderstand him. He's without guile and shuns a corny line. "I think I want to go into the theater," he says. "I've seen a lot of it, thanks to Mother, and I think I'd like it. But I don't want to rush it. Maybe I haven't got what it takes, and that's why I want to go on to college and be prepared for something else."

Shelby Depot Roof Falls; Probe Planned

SHELBY, Ohio (AP)—Army and Air Force engineers today planned to investigate the collapse of 4,300 square feet of roof on a Shelby Air Force depot warehouse.

The cave-in occurred yesterday in a packing and crating section. Eight employees in the section fled the building 30 seconds before the collapse. They were warned by a cracking sound.

The roof, made of reinforced gypsum composition, is about 800,000 square feet in area. The collapsed portion tumbled down on an area used for storing new Air Force undergarments. No damage estimate was reported.

The 300 employees in the newly-dedicated warehouse, which cost almost six million dollars, were given temporary leave pending official investigation.

Brothers Slated To Wed Sisters

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Bluem brothers are marrying sisters in a double ceremony in about two weeks.

Eberhard F. Bluem, 43, and Elsbeth Haefner, 28, and William R. Bluem, 42, and Irmagard Haefner, 27, obtained marriage licenses Wednesday.

The German-born brothers, U.S. residents for 26 years, met the sisters a year ago during a visit to Germany.

It was a year before the sisters obtained visas for permanent residence in the United States. They arrived a week ago and took an apartment in Glendale, next to that occupied by the brothers.

After the weddings, one brother and one sister will exchange addresses.

Voters Refuse To Replace School

NEWCOMERSTOWN (AP)—Voters have turned down an $800,000 bond issue for construction of two new school buildings by 299 votes in a special election here.

A storm practically destroyed East elementary school last March. Since then, classes have been held in five churches and two other buildings.

Dayton Jail Inmate Tries Odd Escape

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A prisoner at Montgomery County Jail devised a unique torch to burn his way out, but the sheriff put out the flames of freedom.

Sheriff Bernard L. Keiter said Charles Daily, 23, of Middletown, used a wire from a radio set and an ordinary lead pencil to improvise his electric torch. Keiter said the wire was plugged into an outlet and the other end connected to the pencil and a ground.

The sheriff said Daily actually burned a small hole in the metal of the ceiling. Daily is in jail on a robbery charge.

But, said Keiter: "There were at least a couple of things wrong with his scheme. It would have taken him quite a while to burn a hole big enough to crawl through, and besides, there's about one foot of concrete above the metal ceiling."

Plumber Killed

DAYTON (AP)—A Dayton plumber, Forrest Freeze, 36, was electrocuted last night while working with an electric drill under a sink, sheriff's deputies reported.

Child Bride's Mom Given Sentence

COLUMBUS (AP)—Mrs. Betty Ann Robinson, 31, of Columbus, drew a 1-10 year term in Marysville Women's Reformatory yesterday for signing her daughter's name to a document waiving the five-day waiting period to get married.

The daughter, 13, married the same day. Her bridegroom, Francis L. Grambo, 21, Columbus, was sentenced to 1-10 years in Mansfield Reformatory July 1 for his part in the scheme. Both Mrs. Robinson and Grambo were convicted of perjury. Authorities said Mrs.

Robinson posed as Grambo's intended bride when they appeared in probate court to get the waiver.

Jailbird Sends For His Canary

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Jack Benson wrote to his home in Columbus Ohio, and asked them to send him his canary. It arrived Wednesday, but an express man had a hard time finding the address, 123 W. 3rd St.

Finally he discovered it was the county jail.

Benson, held on a bad check charge, paid $3.70 express charges—in cash—and took the bird.

How Are Things Going Out At G. E.?

Every now and then someone asks, "How are things going out at General Electric?"

"Very well, thank you," is our answer as we look back upon a successful 1954 and ahead to a continuing prosperous 1955.

We had our ups and downs during 1954—depending upon how many and what kinds of lamps our customers wanted to buy. But overall it was one of our best years for employment.

Your friendly interest in "how we're doing" is always appreciated. Looking back the last year here are some of the year's highlights:

WAGES—GE employees have earned nearly $1,500,000 last year, not counting job dividends like insurance, pension rights, hospitalization, educational opportunities and suggestion awards. General Electric wages here have risen about 2½ times as much as the cost of living since Korea.

NEW OWNERS—30% of our employees are becoming part owners of their company through our Stock Bonus Plan. They are currently putting $39,000 per year into this plan which will mean nearly a $6,000 yearly credit as General Electric 15% Bonus to buy stock and almost another $13,000 interest on the Bonds in 10 years plus yearly dividends accumulated on the stock.

INCREASE PRODUCTION—Doing its share—with improved manufacturing methods — to keep jobs steady by increasing production in all fluorescent types.

WORKING CONDITIONS — Our plant is a clean, pleasant place to work with emphasis always being placed on safety. Dispensary services are under the direction of Dr. J. M. Hedges, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Lumpe, plant nurse. Last year, our cafeteria served 63,000 meals to GE employees.

SUGGESTION AWARDS — Although GE has been making lamps for more than 75 years, we can always use new ideas. During the last year, 32 GE employees received $228 for their ideas which help us run our business better.

GE'S Circleville Lamp Plant (above) reports on some of its activities in Circleville during the last year.

CIVIC CONTRIBUTIONS—Employees and the Company indicated their wish to be good neighbors by contributing time and money to community-sponsored social, health and welfare activities.

TAXES—Meeting its responsibilities as a business citizen, General Electric paid community and state taxes amounting to $35,000.

This year — 1955 — promises continued, better business if we can keep on pleasing our "boss"—the customer. He sees our name as the symbol for high quality and good service.

Naturally, making the best possible lamps as efficiently as we can is our immediate job here at Circleville. Our employees' future—and to a degree your future too—hinges upon how well all of us here can do that job. The lamp business is highly competitive. America's lamp manufacturers can make more lamps than customers need. A company with poor quality lamps—or no lamps at all due to a long, serious strike somewhere—may lose its customers permanently to its competitors.

Ever since our plant opened here 6 years ago, we've said we were glad we had found a home here. Each year confirms more strongly the rightness of our choice.

Over the years, many residents have counted upon General Electric for Good Employment. The community has benefited through the $5½ million GE has paid out in 6 years of payrolls. We aim to keep on providing the kind of jobs that enrich employees' lives and add to the good of the whole community.

Progress Is Our Most Important Product
